falsity of feeling."
He arose and stepped forward to the bar.

ouring out nearly a tumbler full of brandy, he drank it without water, and returned to his seat, and became as thoughtful

"One result may be considered as al-ready established," he finally muttered, ready established," he finally muttered, in a more despairing voice than he had before used, and while a ghastly smile gave a still more repulsive expression to his pallid and care-worn features. "There voice than he had before used. "I am his pallid and care-worn features." is nothing left for me but exposure and public disgrace; and how can Mary hope to avoid the consequences of so terrible a blow? That they selves in some frightful shape or other, is a conclusion that cannot be doubted for a moment; and that she will eventually have to come to something equally as fearful to contemplate, I see no reason for soner!" exclaimed Senor Albro, with a voice and manner clearly expressive of the delight experienced at the and things in general were taking.

"Villain!" cried Edgar, suddenly turning upon the Spaniard, and raising his hands as if he would clutch him by the throat; then checking his sudden passion, e threw himself feebly into the chair he had before been occupying, and remarked in a calm and resolute voice:— "Enough, I accept your offer!"

"Enough, I accept your offer:"

"Put up the property," said Senor Albro, as he raked the thirty-five hundred dollars into the centre of the table, and the miserable Edgar instantly placed his a giant, and as merciles as a gainst his companion for support, and ravenous beast of the desert, dragging the had indicated, and occasionally uttering the miserable Edgar instantly placed his a fierce and burning malediction upon the en."

"All Golf Crede Edgar, as he recled against his companion for support, and surgestive of a minute famine, three while his face became more deathly pale or four times every twenty-four hours."

Mr. Edgar soon opened his eyes in a wild and fearfully expectant manner. They rested upon the tearful eyes that the same fairly people is the frame of the same of the same of the same. It would be been same of the same of the your loss like a man, and not be unmindful of the other condition of the last game; that you are to conduct me to the house!

KS

The young man uttered an exclamation of horror, and covered his face with his do how can Mary hope to brook any display of imbeeility and folly, and would have you exhibit the ready courage and honor of a man! Lead on."

muttered Senor Albro, as he held the night key up to the view of the miserable gamester. "Having been such a fool as to ruin yourself and others, you should bear your loss like a man, and not be unmindful of the other condition of the last own."

"Thenk Haver for the last." ed with scorn."

"Thank Heaven for that," murmured Tombs."

"No, no," responded the wife, as tears dollars into the centre of the table, and the miscrable Edgar instantly placed his a fierce and burning malediction upon the night key thereon, while all of the persons in the room, once more crowded around the gamesters, and manifested more interest than ever in the proceedings.

"It is my last game!" muttered Edgar could have prayed the interest of the deal, and winning. "And, oh! if Heaven would only be pleased to Edgar.

"Softly, my dear sir," replied Senor coursed rapidly down her cheeks; "he has received a terrible lesson, and will Albro, while his eyes appeared to glow never again be guilty of a similar error. like two balls of fire; "I was repulsed by As guilty and foolish as he has shown too sensible of the value of my winnings, to brook any display of imbecility and folly, and would have you exhibit the ready courage and honor of a man! Lead on."

The victim groaned, and would have fallen to the pavement, had not the strong arm of the other held him as in a vice.

"In time, the lady was married to James Edgar, the head clerk of a well night key firmly between his thumb and forefinger; and drawing the arm of his companion in his own, he moved forward, half leading, half dragging him, until was pressing happily forward in the road the order the unexpected sight she lelieve that his heart will come forth from the affliction as gold from the refiner's fire."

A groan from the sufferer at this instant, and a slight movement of his body, announced his return to consciousness, and caused an exclamation of joy to leave the lips of his wife, while she renewed her efforts to effect the desirable end.

"It to do you he would soon recover," was pressing happily forward in the road the ground have the strong arm of the other held him as in a vice.

"In time, the lady was married to James Edgar, the head clerk of a well lieved that his heart will come forth from the affliction as gold from the refiner's fire."

A groan from the sufferer at this instant, and a slight movement of his body, announced his return to consciousness, and caused an exclamation of joy to leave the lips of his wife, while she renewed her efforts to effect the desirable end.

"It to do you he would soon recover," was pressing happily forward in the road.

forefinger; and drawing the arm of his carful to contemplate, I see no reason for loubt."

"A true, and most philosophical reasoner!" exclaimed Senor Albro, with a coice and manner clearly expressive of the lelight experienced at the turn affairs, and things in general were taking.

"Villain!" eried Edgar, suddenly turnary upon the Spaniard, and raising his ands as if he would eluteh him by the horat; then checking his sudden passion, e threw himself feebly into the chair he ad before been occupying, and remarked.

To refinger; and drawing the arm of his companion in his own, he moved forward, half leading, half dragging him, until they were beyond the limits of the room.

CHAPTER V.

A FEARFUL REVELATION.

UT of doors, and threading the nearly deserted streets of the great city!

Out of doors, where the young manner of the victim, and drawn him into their snare. Step by step they had her efforts to effect the desirable end.

"I told you he would soon recover," muttered the gambler, still busying him to fortune: but such was not the case. The rejected lover had made his influence visible in the scene—had leagued with a number of well known gamblers, and these men, under one pretence and another, at different times, had made the acquaintance of the victim, and drawn him into their snare. Step by step they had led him on in the downward career of the led him on in the downward career of the led him on in the downward career of the led him on in the downward career of the led him on in the downward career of the led him on in the downward career of the led him on in the downward career of the learned was pressing happily forward in the road to fortune: but such was not the case. The reflock to effect the desirable end.

"I told you he would soon recover," muttered the gambler, still busying him to fortune: but such was not the case. The reflock to effect the desirable end.

"I told you he would be reflored to the case. The reflock to effect the desirable end.

"I told you he would one if to down an inthe case. The appeared to become as strong as "My God!" cried Edgar, as he reeled that is fearful to behold, and strikingly

She knew full well that he loved her not,
Yet her's could no'er depart;
For she had freely given to him
The pearl of her woman's heart;
But grief soon stole the roses away
From off her velvet cheek;
And her heart was crush'd by heavy woes,
That words would have fail'd to speak;
Yet murnur'd she not but meekly bent
To the storm of deceit and malice;—
Her heart was broken—her hanpiness were

Her heart was broken—her happiness wreck'd Poor, hopless, beautiful Alice. They took her, love, to the Sunny South, They took her, love, to the Sunny South,
And thought to restore again
The bloom on her check; also to case
Her heart from its burning pain;
They dream'd, with hopes of coming health,
That wonders of modern art
Would take the sting away from despair,
And heal up a stricken heart;
But all in vain, her woman's love,
Was wearing her life away;
And she became like a withered leaf
In the hear of a symmer'd avery

In the heat of a summer's day : lowly she faded, as fades the stars From out of a morning's sky; [love, And they brought her home in the spring time, Like a wounded bird—to die.

She prayed for death, and her prayer was heard For she calmly passed away; As the twilight fades from the evening sky, At the close of a summer day;
They buried her form in the grave yard here,
And laid her beneath the sod;

In perpetual vigor there;—
They burried her here, and now she is free From sorrow, deceit, and malice; And this the plain unvarnish'd tale, Of the loving, trusting Alice

Along the cold and rainy street
The little beggar goes;
The fever blossoms on her cheek,
And not the healthy rose;
Bright tears are shining in her eye,—
Oh! far too bright for mockery.

Her frozen feet are bare and sore-Oh God! why must this be Amidst this city's opulence, And pride, and luxury? Her hands are swollen with the cold; Her step is slow like one that's old.

Oh, is this not a painful sight
To those who've hearts to feel? Look! see the tears flow from her eyes
And on her check congoal.
Come Christian! here's a chance to save
A being from an early grave.

Hark! now she speaks; "Oh, pity me! A penny only give.

To help me to a loaf of bread,
My mother cannot live
Unless I find some charity;
Oh, friends! oh, friends! come, give it me.'

Women and men! if you have bearts To feel for other's grief, Give to this sick, afflicted child Your biessings of reitef.

And when to Life's far end you've trod

Remembering this you'll meet your God.

WRITTEN FOR THE TIMES. TO ROLLIN.

BY LOTTIC LINWOOD.

Stranger with the tuneful lyre,
. Thy sweet song came back to me,
As beside the winter fire— I sat musing dreamily : And thy lines of flowing gra Whispering unto me to-ni

Whispering unto me to night, Make me wonder if thy face Shineth with Promethean light;— Wonder if thy dream of life Is as joyeus unto thee, Angel guarded pleasure rife, Like thy golden wish for me. Bright-hued thoughts and dreams are thi Bright-hued thoughts and dreams are thine Gladsom is thy sil'vry lay.

Breathing blessings half divine,
On a stranger's weary way.

I accept thy poesy wreath,
Twined with fadeless flowers, and fair—
And amid the thanks I breathe, Lend thee blessings, and a prayer.

sessed of unbounded geniality and a bril-liant intellect, she is a charming compan-ion. She is ever in a good humor, ever the same spirit, call this an age of "paint," joyous. She was presented to the Queen; as indicative of the prevalent spirit of shamming and deception, which prefers outside ently literary; had an interview with the Pope, and all were charmed by her many. We can look in no direction without the control of the book is but lovely traits of character. The book is but the reflex of her perennial gayety of heart, sham. Dissatisfied with what it is, the we make an extract-very dark. A little boy about ten years old, clothed in rags, ran before the horses to light up the road. After passing the 'Witches' Cave,' there was no more danger of 'toppling o'er the pricipiec,' and we directed the courier to take the child in the barouche, and stow him away under the feet of the coachman; whereupon the courier and coachman declared it was prodless to do so, as a lazaroni boy was needless to do so, as a lazaroni boy was accustomed to all kinds of fatigue and bedizened. hardship. By the expiring flame of the ing eyes of the little creature, and comunanded them to take him up. They reluctantly d'd so, muttering at the mistaken kindness of the Signora, which they deemed sadly wasted upon such an atom of g time. torch. I saw the wearied face and appeal-creation was asleep, and the coachman threw him upon various grounds, some for counter-out as one would do a little puppy, while he shook his rags and prepared to run off. In some cases the Bible has been publicly M. D. called him, and gave him a five burnt. Laws have been issued against franc piece, when he turned to me, saying, reading it. Its pages have been used as Please, good Signora, tell me what this is; I never saw so much money before.' French, and subjected to all kinds of misreperbased to all kinds of misteries was such a look of intelligence in his countenance, that, after he was gone, I questioned the coachman about him, who looked incredulously at me, that it was possible to feel an interest in a vagrant like him. However, as I asked, he told me that many years ago he had discovered this child was in the habit of greening in priests to make themselves accommission. this child was in the habit of creeping in the best to make themselves acquainted to his stable and sleeping upon the habit of creeping in the best to make themselves acquainted to his stable and sleeping upon the habit of creeping in the best to make themselves acquainted to his stable and sleeping upon the habit of creeping in the best to make themselves acquainted to his stable and sleeping upon the habit of creeping in the best to make themselves acquainted to his stable and sleeping upon the habit of creeping in the best to make themselves acquainted to his stable and sleeping upon the habit of creeping in the best to make themselves acquainted to his stable and sleeping upon the habit of creeping in the best to make themselves acquainted to his stable and sleeping upon the habit of creeping in the best to be acquainted to his stable and sleeping upon the habit of creeping in the best to be acquainted to his stable and sleeping upon the habit of creeping upon How To RETURN A BLOW.—Mr. Marsh Morsul, relates of an Armenian, named in the inquired where he came from, and lived, cuild not write, and was 45 years. of Morsul, relates of an Armenian, named John, that when living at Constantinople, the boy answered that he had never known of age before he began his studies he was hired, by persecuting Armenians, the boy answered that he had never known to strike a watch-maker. The latter, upon brance was crawling about the streets near receiving the blow, nobly prayed, 'May our coachman's stable, and after dark [God bless you.' This remarkable answer stealing in these. His only food had been was effectual; for said John, in allusion bones thrown him by the other beggar's, requested a courade to write to his betroth-sorrow's CHILD.

By PONINGOR.

g the cold and rainy street ellittle beggar goes:

ever blossoms on her cheek, do not the healthy rose;

it tears are shining in her eye,— tears are shining in her eye,— for the carriage, when he drove up the mountain at night.

"Poor little being! no human creature to care for him!" I involuntarily cried.—

The coachman shrugged his shoulders as he said, "Bah! Signors! why should you care?—it is the fate of these lazaroni.—

They are born in the streets, they live in the streets, (never sleeping under the roof

They are born in the streets, they live in the streets, (never sleeping under the roof of a house during all their lives) and they die in the street —then are thown into a deep hole, like a dog."

The lustrous eyes of Rafaello really haunted me all night, and his pitiable story was often in my mind. Immediately after brakfast we entered our vettura, and drove away from the hotel. As we turned the corner, we heard a voice calling out, "Stop! Stop!" Supposing we had left some of our property in the apartments, we stopped; when little Rafaello ran up to the side of the carriage, exclaiming, "Pray, Signora, make them open the door." This was done, when the child sprang up on the step and said, "Please sprang up on the step and said, "Please let me kes your hand; you are the first let me klas your hand; you are the first and only person who ever spoke one kind word to poor Rafaello." Then seixing my hand, he kissed it several times, and pressed it to his little throbbing heart, then jumped down, and disappeared from our sight in an instant.

You may well imagine how this affected me, and how the tears poured from my eyes, as I vainly called him back. Never to have heard but one kind word! and that only the common expression of symthat only the common expression of sympathy, that I would give to a cat or dog I saw trampled upon and abused. And the child, too, Mamma, was beautiful, as I looked at him standing on the steps of the carriage. His features were classicall regular, his mouth exquisite, and his jet black hair matted in close curles aroun black hair matted in close curies around his head. The glowing and radiant expression of soul and feeling which lighted up his face can never be forgotten. I am sure this child is of noble blood, possibly the offspring of an unhallowed love, too fervid and daring for the conventionalities of the world, and whom the fear of shame and disgrace has actuated to this ernel act of inhumanity, in yielding up the creature of their passion to a living death.

" Shams"

Epochs in history are named, after they Souvenirs of Travel.

Such is the title of a trew volume, by silver, the 'age of gold,' the age of Madame Le Vert, a lady of Mobile. Possessed of unbounded geniality and a brilling of the metal to article with the qualities of the metal to article with the qualities.

world seems to have clothed itself in cheap Ah! Mamma, we have left bewitching Naples, but I can't say I am ready to die after having seen it; rather would I wish to live, that I may remember its enchantments.

A pleasant little incident attended our departure, which I must tell you. Last night, until after two, we were on the mountain, and as we came down, it was very dark. A little boy about ten years old, clothed in rags, ran before the horses in uttering shams of patriotism.—

Cheap imitations of what is good find a ready market, while the good itself is not apply the proof itself in the proof itself is not apply the proof itself in the HISTORY OF THE BIBLE .- " The history When we reached the hotel the child

When we reached the hotel the child the child to the affair, I could not strike again, and at night I said to the money, 'Instead of my cating you, you will eat me.' John soon gave occasion for friends and foes to say of him, 'Behold, he prayeth?' Thus was the nower of a soft answer strik.' Thus was the nower of a soft answer strik.' I shall hold him to his cinematical with the horses; and to hold torches gagement.'

THE TIMES.

GREENSBOROUGH, N. C.

ADVERTISING. One square (12 lines) first insertion $1.00. Each additional week 25cts. The following am-ple deductions will be made in favor of standing

One square, $ 3.00 $ 5.00 $ 7 we squares, 6.00 $ 10.00 $ 15.00

The Charleston Courier, is an independent Commercial and News paper, tied to no party, but a faithful friend to right, and a terror to evil doers. It is old, well established ably edited and perfectly reliable, so far as any thing human can be. From these considerations, we praze highly the following notice of the Times.

"The Times," to which we refer is a literary and family newspaper published weekly in Greensboro', N. C., by OGBURN, COLE, & AL BRIGHT, at $2.00 per annam for single subscrip-tions, and with liberal reduction and inducements to clabs. This paper has just completed its second volume, and having been from the first-on our exchange list, we have had opportunites of observing and judging its conduct an i merits. We are pleased to be able to state Editors have exerted themselves strenuously and in good faith to 'redeem all pledges and promises, and have produced a newspaper which deserves general circulation.

We have no doubt that the appointment of an agency here, or a provision by which copies are be unfavorably affected in this case of nermeneutics, not only permits to ear this in the athers. The question quire us to take this latitude (if it be so now arises. Why should we interpret in this narrative in a limited seeme? And agency here, or a provision by which copies could be conveniently supplied, would extend in this vicinity the circulation of the Times, and signed by the sacred writer for bringing if this should be at the expense of any of the this calamity on the world, was "the two dollar trash and flashy weeklies that come in items of man," and the object to be the Times a trial-and at the same time give surface, we may ask, why should men inequal chance to other publications of southern origin?

sist that the waters prevailed over a great er extent than was adequate to the production of the result which God had in view, since the terms of the record, as we

it exceedingly improbable, even from the quire us to give a limited sense to the passages already cited. And the only reason why those evidences, or facts, have

We are now ready to inquire-what are ark. The old commentators and theologi-ans (and many of their disciples in modern times) have indeed attempted to obviate this difficulty by showing that the dimen-

it was supposed by some to be (the scrip

Among Theologians no portion of the Bible has been so assiduously studied of duced to show that Gol would not des mask of prudence, to protract an unequal late years, as that written by Moses. The troy any more, sufficient indeed to render rapid developements made latterly in the various sciences, conflicted with the comvarious sciences, conflicted with the commanly received versions of the "Creation," there no positive evidences to the contra ry furnished by modern science. But there are such evidences in abundance, over what they supposed a complete overthrow of Christianity. But Truth is consis- and geography, which all will admit, re tent with itself, and while we acknowledge the Truth of Science, yet it but confirms the record of the Bible, when properly not caused us to limit our interpretation understood.

To us, this duscussion of Science and Genesis, has been both interesting and enstructive; and thinking our reders and so long. I say this is the only continuous which may be construed as disrespectful and so long. I say this is the only continuous the function of the function to the fu would also be interested, we have secured ceivable reason, and respectfully submit the following will written article from a whether it would not be just as legitimate gentleman who has given much attention for us to interpret the latter pas to the study of modern sciences, connected with the Bible. The views of the writer words," and then resort to suppositions of unrecerded miracles (as in the last passage will, nodoubt, conflict with the opinions quoted above) to extricate ourselves from the consequent embarrassments, as to do fore, that may feel disposed to reply, we freely open our columns, not as a banter from the writer, but without consult those facts? and a few will suffice : ing him, we take the liberty to make the ... 1st. The inadequacy of the size of the your polite request I write the following this difficulty by showing that the dimen-article on the subject of the Deluge, for sions of the ark were much greater than your Paper. Was the Noachian Deluge universal? Was the Noachian Deluge universal?

A negative answer to this question is generally supposed to affect seriously the inspired authority of the Holy Scriptures.

That this supposition, however, though the supposition, however, though the supposition housible is presented as the supposition of the different species of animals (14 of all the clean and 2 of all the at first sight quite plausible is neverthe-less entirely unwarrantable will, I appre-hend, appear evident from the considera-tion of the fact,—that make the considera-quite sufficient. But, unfortunately, for 7th Chap. Gen. in his description of that History would now re juire room for about ple iominon, do not necessarily imply 40 times that number, and every year is course of the Administration relative to phe iominon, do not necessarily imply that these terms adding to the list. Hence the question of the ark's dimensions can no longer be cartained; it is impossible to sustain it now. It is of no avail to remind us that clarke, Wesley, Benson and others, who by Jesus christ; but that they convey this idea, either in the instances alluded to, or in any others, where they occur in the scriptures, must be determined enthe scriptures, must be determined entirely by the connections in which we find them and by parallel passages, aided them are the parallel passages, and the parallel passages are the parallel passages, and the parallel passages are the parallel passages are th find them and by parallel passages, aided frequently by the light of science and history, &c. A few of the many passages where these same terms are used in the scriptures, but in which no sane mind at table to them a universal signification of the many passages where these same terms are used in the scriptures, but in which no sane mind at table to them a universal signification. In the long pilgrimages and insurable to in all probability. To say the least, it is a little uncourteous and boastful in coming from all parts of the globe to attention at the hands of so dignified a person as President will not be refused to the President taches to them a universal signification, ing doom, embarrass the commonly receivmeanwhile "the little gray-eyed man" rewill be sufficient to establish this position. ed view with difficulties of no ordinary mains with us, anxiously awaiting the conand 21 verses, we are informed that there were cattle remaining alive there still. Can the word "all" be understood in its widest sense here? So also in Ex. ix chapter 25 verse it is said that "the land of hail smote throughout all the land of Funt, all that was if the field both man. It is the deluge. And farther, 4th. If we should waive this objection, 4th. If we should waive this objection, 5th and 1 the land of the deluge. And farther, 4th. If we should waive this objection, 5th and 1 the land of the deluge. And farther, 4th. If we should waive this objection, 5th and 1 the land of the deluge. And farther, 4th. If we should waive this objection, 5th and 1 the land of the deluge and 1 the land of the land of the land of the land of the land was if the field both man more remarkable for its novely than any form the fact of his wearing a unit. The first or included a land of the l of the field and brake every tree of the fire originated in the Grocery store field;" Yet in the 15 verse of the following chapter it is said that the locusts that had the sanimals been brought togethand all the fruit of the trees which the could not have existed for a month, and and Army, graced by men whose deeds of Donnelly, published in your last, are well (same) hall had beft."—Query:—Did the some, not for a week, nor even for a day, locusts literally cover the face of the in consequence of their change of tem miration of every American citizen.

And worth treasuring up in the mind of every American citizen.

At 12 o'clock a large crowd had gatherthese passages, and are the terms "all" this objection to inform us of what everyed round the main entrance of the manand "every" (referring to the "men." body knows, that many kinds of animals sion, all anxious to be admitted; and their

as representatives of the rest, to Jerusalem at that time. A supposition too absurd to require refutation. And yet such is exactly the manner in which the commonly received view of the deliverage of the d the old and New Testaments. If then it of the Divine Word, before the bar or a can be shown, that for precisely similar enlightened reason, do not imperative and equally conclusive reasons, we are demand a modification of the commonly obliged to understand the Mosaic narrative of the deluge likewise in a restricted ic record? And since, for reasors found sense I confess myself entirely unable to conceive how the inspiration of scripture can be unfavorably affected in this case of hermeneutics, not only permit, but refrom a region farther Nort than North Caronecomplished by it, was his "destruction."

lina, neither literature or good taste would suffer in the change.

Suppose some of our periodical d a'rs give

Comparatively small portion of the earth's land the object to be tainly must, with the geographic lines, and historic data inscribed by the finger of Good, in those laws, by which he governs the physical universe? Not a single reason, I apprehend, can be given in answer to this question, but could with equal force be urged in support of the exploded dog-mas of the Physico-Theology of Hutch-have seen, do not necessarily imply it. for us to confess our error at once, when the fact becomes obvious, than under the warfare against the established truths of science. A warfare which in every in-stance has hitherto proved unsuccessful; resulting in nothing but shame to the vanquished—bringing dishonorand contempt upon the word of God—and by thus en-shrouding the "light of the world" in the dense clouds of an ignorant prejudice shut it out forever from the vision of the sincerely skeptical, to whom it might otherwise have appeared as the star of Beth ehem—the precursor of an eternal day If the earnestness with which I have ex pressed my convictions in this article, has petrayed me into the utterance of a word ch may be construed as disrespectfu beg to assure them that this intention if farthest from my mind-my only object eing to "speak the truth in love Jan. 4th, 1858. R. S

Waifs from Washington. CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "TIMES."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11, 1858. holydays-Gen. Walker in and out of Cor the holydays—Gen. Walke: in and out of Congress—New-Year's day in the Metropolis—Reception at the President's—Receptions at the Mansions of the Cabinet Officers—Chs.
Mackay—His Lectures—The Old Hall of Rep.—Mimic sessions—The Weather—Vice President—The French Bill—Indian Delegations-The fate of Donnelly-&c. &c

The holydays are over-their pleasure passed, and the New-Year opens with cheering prospects. Congress is again at work, and with a right good will too. Business is fairly commenced, notwithstanding

tion of the fact,—that

The terms "all" and "every" (referring to the hills which were covered, and to the animals &c. which were destroyed by the flood) used by Moses in the Tth Chap. Gen. in his description of that the troy of the troy of the flood o Gen. Walker's unexpected arrival a chapter verse 5 ue are informed that at a certain time "there were dwelling at Jeruselem, Jews, devout men out of EVERY NATION UNDER HEAVEN"—an expression which in word and form seems to imply universality as obviously as any found in the narrative of the deluge, yet no one will infer from it that "every nation and then by "Jews dwelling at Jeruselem" unless it is supposed that by a miracle, God first created Jews in every nation and then by another miracle transported some of them as representatives of the rest, to Jerusalem at that time. A supposition too abis exactly the manner in which the commonly received view of the deluge has been defended. I think these quotations prove that many terms and phrases found in the scriptures, which in strict logical become than they could on dry and construction appear universal in their import, may be, and indeed must be interpreted in a perticular and limited sense, because cit ler the connections in which they stand, or the well known (scientific) facts of history, and geography &c., as might readily be shown, require such lemitations. But no one, of ordinary intelligence will, I apprehend, imagine that this admix in , can in any sense affect the inspired authority of the writers of the old and New Testaments. If then it can be shown, that for precisely similar endeaded on the construction of the construction of the construction appear universal in their inspired authority of the writers of the laws of the constructions in which they stand, or the well known (scientific) facts of history, and geography &c., as might readily be shown, require such lemitations. But no one, of ordinary intelligence will, I apprehend, imagine that this admix in , can in any sense affect the inspired authority of the writers of the laws of the manner of calling on the precise of fish—some of which have their instinction the former and others in the destates.

Whisper your name to the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to the President of the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to the President of the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to the President of the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to the President of the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to the President of the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to the President of the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to the President of the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to the President of the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to the President of the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to make room for the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to make a president of the U. S. Marthal who introduces you to make a presi quite different from that in approaching sentiment of the South, and not the

he crowned heads of Europe.

The members of the Cabinet opened introduction of foreign slave labor." their mansions to the public, and crowds were visiting them during the day Secretary Cass was thronged to a great extent. He never seemed to look better than on this occasion; and large numbers of his friends thought that he could en dure many more years of public life. The day closed with great satisfaction and pleasure to all, and it is to be hoped that the new year on which we have entered recited one or two of his orginal poems on the occasions. Lord Napier, Lane, and many of our most distinguished ket easier. Lane, and many of our most distinguished people have attended his very entertainting lectures. Mr. Mackay was a spectator to President Buchanan's reception, and took a curious interest in all that transpired. It was novel to him. We are now having a series of lectures at the Smithsonian Institution, by several of our most distinguished lecturers. Dr. J. J. Haves, one of the unfortunate Kane's Haves, one of the unfortunate Kane's him. companions, is now lecturing on the "artic Regions." There is now no dearth of public amusements, lectures and a theatre filling the want we have experienced in this respect heretofore. And the public and private receptions of the public and private receptions of the clite give evidence that the season of the clite fill the total the formation of the clite give evidence that the season of the clite give evidence that the clite give evidence gayety is firmly established in the Metro- mong them in consequence.

The old Hall of Representatives re mains untenanted, save by the Pages who lold mimic sessions in it. It is quite sales of $10,000 of N. C. Stocks at $93, amusing to watch them. They go through in that City. This looks well. all the forms, often expelling some little one, and making a great noise in exact of Congress in passing through to the new Hall, often stop and observe their proceedings, being much annual of the Petersburg Express, writing from Smithfield, Va., says "a farmer living about three miles from here, was surproceedings, being much annual of the prised a morning or the size. by. Who can tell but some one of those little fellows, who "plays" Speaker, may yet fill that position with profit and honor ters. But this is not all. Upon examiin after years?

Last year at this time we' were buried in deep snow, but now it is as pleasant as specified and five distinct eyes. Two of the eyes Spring. Christmas, a few flakes strolled are located at the usual place as with other playfully through the air, falling to the hogs and then there are three others in the earth, and only reminding us that

"Tis winter, yet there is no sound Along the air Of winds upon their battle-ground, But gently there, The snow is falling,—all around How fair—how fair!"

This is the most pleasant winter that we have had for many years; and it at-tracts youth and beauty to the Federal pate and speculation in regard to it will be of no effect; and President Buchanan s favorable to the bill, which is the most important consideration. Should the hill oass it will make a draft on the Treasury

d the face of the whole earth, er into any one place—the laws of nature their variegated hues. Then came the their path. The excellent remarks of South to the Perry House, occupied by did eat every herb of the land, being the same then as now—many of them simple, emblematic uniform of our Navy your New York correspondent, respecting L. J. Lockett, thence East, to the corner

Miss ELIZA LESLIE died at Gloucester. N. J., on Friday, the 1st instant, in the were saved but in a damaged state. and "every" (referring to the "min." body knows, that many kinds of animals sion, all anxious to be admitted; and there is such as the lion, the bear and the elementary of the does the former? Once more: In Luke ii and carried round in tinerating establish. And such a rush, too—every one thought the bear and there is the does on Cookery and Housekeeping, Miss the former? Once more: In Luke ii and carried round in tinerating establish. And such a rush, too—every one thought the bear and there is the does on Cookery and Housekeeping, Miss the line was widely known, and there is ted, has received a letter from Mr. Mason chapter I verse it is stated that a decree ment for public exhibition, though they himself or herself entitled to an equal beautiful to the does on the line was widely known, and there is ted, has received a letter from Mr. Mason chapter I verse it is stated that a decree ment for public exhibition, though they himself or herself entitled to an equal beautiful to the does of the public exhibition and the element in the line was soon set at rest. The doors of the doors of the rush. want forth from Cas ar Augustus that all the world should be taxed;" yet every sunday school girl knows that it means but a rery small portion of "the world should be taxed;" and with true zeal, pushed their the range is not literally a "household to adangerous with the world should be taxed;" yet every sunday school girl knows that it means but a rery small portion of "the world should be taxed;" yet every sunday school girl knows that it means but a rery small portion of "the world should be taxed;" yet every sunday school girl knows that it means the effect that a company of American gentlement had affered to undertake the job chance, and with true zeal, pushed their the range is not literally a "household to adangerous word." Her various receipt books have extent—never did it experience such a dowed with capacities, and the offer is accepted, we feel confident that the "job will be executed with neat-

THE BUSY WORLD.

Usury Law :- On Thursday night the New York Chamber of Commerce adopted a memorial to the Legislature, asking the repeal of the usury laws, on the ground that past experience, and especially that of the last four months, is sufficient to show the folly of legislative restrictions on the value of money.

out the annoyance of a crowd. Such is a brief description of the manner of calling on the President New-Year's day. It is Cuba. In other words, it is the public ber of gentlemen have taken steps to have

COURT HOUSE BURNT.-We regret to Lucknow, in India, had been relieved, advance the interests of the Association, and the insurgents had been defeated in and cause it to prosper. Our Court House do do 2... 12 w.O. pipe. all directions. Twenty-four members of will make a fine lecture-room, and the only do No 2. 11.50 do had, 43.00 do bbl.

the sales closed with an advancing tenden-cy. Breadstuffs were dull. Money mar-has been announced, made the following

N. C. STOCKS -The N. Y. Journal of

A FREAK OF NATURE .- A correspon nation one of them proved to be a perfect

RAILTOAD SUBSCRIPTION .- On the 2d Monday in February the citizens of Rutherford County will vote on a proposition to subscribe $80,000 to Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad.

BRUTAL MURDER :- The Clarksville (Va.) Tobacco Plant says a man by the name of Tuck killed a man by the name of Ashby at Scottsburg Station, on the School day of his relatives or friends SILK GOODS, Richmond and Danville Road, in Halifax wish to learn more of the particulars, they county, a few days since. Tuck was beating a little son of Ashby. The father interfered and demanded the cause, when Tuck seized Ashby and struck him repeated blows. He then held him by the col- to several of our citizens as a man of strict lar at arms length with his left hand, and integrity, and his statements may be imwith his right, took a knife from his pock- plicitly relied on. Our State cotemporaet, opened it with his teeth and cut Ashby ries may confer a kindness on the friends to the heart. Tuck then made his escape of the deceased by copying the above letand is still at large, no one interfering, ter.]-Ashville News. though several witnessed the affair.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION :-The Democratic State Committee have settled upon Charlotte as the place, and the century, whose fame has spread into al-14th of April as the time, for holding the Democratic State Convention for the purrendy for her native element; but she pose of nominating a Democratic candidate for Governor.

taking in its course, the office of N. Lock-ett, Esq., I. W. Garrott, P. King and the block. Most of the goods and valuables NEGROES .- The Charleston Standard says:—The sale of negroes belonging the estate of the late Mr. Hudson to place at Winnsboro on Wednesday. One man, a carpenter, brought $1,800; two house servants, $1,110 and $085; and a bricklayer, aged 55 years, $900. SERFS OF RUSSIA :- In Russia an imperial rescript, dated the 2d ult., inaugurmmencement of emancipation sentiment of the South, and not the phi-an Association formed in Spartanburg for lanthropy of the North, which forbids the securing the delivery of popular lectures. The object of the Association is to secure the delivery of a free lecture, on some may be one of prosperity and happiness to the American people. Its brilliant opening is certainly a cheering omen.

Charles Mackay, Editor of the Lendon all directions. Twenty-four members of the royal family had been executed at Delaward Expense will be in furnishing lights."

LIBERAL BEQUESTS .- The late John

handsome bequests: 000, and an annuity of $24; to the American Bible Society $10,000; to the Am-FAILURE OF THE GOVERNMENT TO PAY erican Tract Society $10,000; to the Rev

> Sad Mistake. MOUNT HOPE, Ala., Dec. 15, 1857. Editor Asheville News:

A man by the name of Benjamin Rollins was killed in Marion county, Alabama, on the 8th of October last. He was deaf and dumb, and was on his way from North Carolina to Pexar county, Texas. He had left the public road a short distance and was discovered by a young man wh was hunting, and not being acquainte with a mute's attempts to talk, the young man says he shot him through fear, (and all Selieve it.)

The said Benjamin Rollins was bewritten out at Davidson College, N. C. He had some manuscript copy of a Dietionary, supposed to have been written out by himself. There was also found on his person $1,300 in gold and silver, which, according to the laws of Alabama, will remain in the hands of the Coroner six years, subject to the demand of his relatives. After that time it may be the county in which the was a set of the county in which tween 50 and 60 years of age, and would the eyes weigh about 150 pounds. He had a rethe county in which he was killed, to be added to the school fund.

[The writer of the above letter is ki

The Leviathan.

Intelligence from Europe says this mampose of nominating a Democratic candidate for Governor.

Dr. Mitchell's Successor:—A meeting of the Trustees of the University was was always looked upon this affair to the stands of the trustees of the University was to have always looked upon this affair to the stands of the trustees of the University was to have always looked upon this affair to the stands of the trustees of the University was to have always looked upon this affair to the stands of the trustees of the University was to have always looked upon this affair to the stands of the trustees of the University was the stands on her ways, a living monutation and refer to among others:—Hon. T. Raffan, John Newlin, P. A. Helt, W. R. Albright, Alamance; J. H. Haughton, A. H. Lindley, Cathenia P. C. Cameron, John F. Lyon, W. J. Bingham, Orange; John Long, Randolph; E. G. Reade, G. & H. Williams, Person. 6:19 taches to them a universal signification, will be sufficient to establish this position. The first instance to which reference is made in this connection, may be found in this connection, may be found in the famine was over all the fact that whole generations of the earth. And all constricts came into Egypt, to Joseph for to buy corn, because the form the standary that Prof. We have had visits from several delement to end the first instance to which reference is many friends. New-Year's day was a great day in Washington. The weather was as beautiful to the first effection for the "Great We S. Martin was elected to succeed the weeks. Their affection for the "Great We S. Martin was elected to succeed the Egypt to furn out a greater one than we expécted? Even should the English and we learn from the Standard that Prof. We S. Martin was elected to succeed the "Standard that Prof. We S. Martin was elected to succeed the "India in tribes within a few we expécted? Even should the Egypt to furn out a greater ene than we expécted? Even should the English or we expécted? Even should th that the famine spoken of was universal, yet the terms used, seem to express the ilea of universality as clearly as they do in the description of the deluge. Again, in Ex. ix chapter 6 verse we are told that the cattle of Eypt died," but in the description of the deluge. Again, and says well as plants, must have had valued as an able and learned gentleman, and one fully competent for the position. The execution of Donnelly in N. J. on the British Minister, attracted much at least the people. They seem to be restrained to the people. They seem to be restrained to the processor, of Chemistry in Washington College, Pa. He is highly recommended as an able and learned gentleman, and one fully competent for the position. The execution of Donnelly in N. J. on the British Minister, attracted much at least the people. They seem to be restrained to the processor, should be entirely help to the public. At 11 o'clock the foreign disciplination of the deluge. Again, is taken as the mark of the wind and waves; the processor of Chemistry in Washington College, Pa. He is highly recommended as an able and learned gentleman, and one fully competent for the position. The execution of Donnelly in N. J. on Friday last, was well as plants, must have had valued as an able and learned gentleman, and one fully competent for the position. The execution of Donnelly in N. J. on the British Minister, attracted much at least the processor, to the public of the inner beautiful to the public. At 11 o'clock the foreign dwellings, stores, shops &c., unbid, often to the public. At 11 o'clock the foreign dwellings, stores, shops &c., unbid, often to the public of the bull to the public. At 11 o'clock the foreign dwellings, stores, shops &c., unbid, often to the public of the bull to the public. At 11 o'clock the foreign dwellings, stores, shops &c., unbid, often to the public of the bull to the public of the bull to the public of the public of the public of the bull to the public of the publ ormous-and, besides, the time employed

With this view of the case we must ne-knowlege that, to our eyes, the chances of her stockholders ever realizing anything on their investment is very slim; and it Commercial printing office—leaving only one or two small buildings on the entire block. Most of the goods and valuables were saved but in a damaged state.

must be very unconsoling to them, while watching her progress over the ways, to know that every foot she moves was costing taken in the best style of the Art. Immediate application should be made as my stay here may at the last accounts the base of the lost of the lost of the last accounts are the last accounts and the last accounts are the last ac MR. MASON:—The President, it is sta-bundred feet before reaching the water.

We notice a paragraph in the papers, to

Mr. Mason

We notice a paragraph in the papers, to

We notice a paragraph in the papers, to the effect that a company of American gen-tlemen had offered to undertake the job of An EXCELLENT Assortment of

COMMERCIAL

GRESNSBORO MARKET Jan. 14,
Reported expressly for the Times.
By Gilmer & Hendrix, Merchants, West Market, Bacon 16; (618; Becf 4(65); Beeswax 20;
Butter 20@; Coffee 164; Candles, Tallow 22
(625, Adamantine 27@40, Sperm 556/80; Corr. 50(30.00 Meni 50(30.00; Chickens 10 (615; Eggs 10; Fenthers 40@45; Flour
5.00@0.00; Flaxseed 1.00; Bidee, green 5, dried 10; Hay 50(36); Lard 16; (618; Menses 50(3); Nalls 6(3); Oats 40; Pens, yellow 75@00, white 75@000; Pork 8.00@
8.50; Rugs 24/9; Rice 8(300; Salt 2.256/8)
8.50; Sugar, Brown 124/614, loaf 184, crushed 184, clarifled 163; Tallow 124/615; Wheat 80(6).00; Weol 25(38).

WILMINGTON MARKET, Jan. 13.

Reported expressly for the Times.

Bacon, hoground 12 @, western sides 12;
@17. western shoulders 11@12, hams 16@14; Brandy peach 1.25@00. spplc 60@76;
Butter 25@28; Becwax 23@25; Cheese 12
@13; Candles, adamantine 25@26, sperm 35
@55: Corn 55@60; Cotton 9;@000; Coffee, rio 11; a12, lagura 12@18; Fenthers 45@00;
Flour, superfine 6.00@0.00 extra 7.75, fine 6.50, family 8.00, seratched 6.50@6.75; Guano, 1 ton $65, 5 tons $60; Hay (N. C.) 80@00: Lime 125@135; Molasses, Cuba 28@30; Mackerel, no2 12.00@0.00, 3no. 10.50@6.75; Nails 5@; Oats 65@0; Rosin, no. 1, 5.75@0.00, no. 2, 1.25@1.80, common 1.15@1.00; Rice 4@0; Shad 00@00; Salt, alum 80@00, sack 1.00; Spirits Turpentine 55; -00; Turpentine, virgin and vellow dip, 2.15 a0.09, hard 1.5a0.00; Tar 1.1ca.00; Wheat, red 1.00@0.00, white 1.15@000

NORFOLK MARKET, Jan. 11.

COURT HOUSE BURNT.—We regret to learn that the Court House at Greenville was entirely consumed by Fire on last Thursday night, and but few papers saved—supposed to be the work of an incendiarry.—Tarboro Southerner, 0th inst.

Late from Europe.—The steamer Africa brings Liverpool dates to the 25th December.

Lucknow, in India, had been relieved, and the insurgents had been defeated in all directions. Transport for the steamer of the steam do 8, 9,50 REMARKS. - Flour - receipts continue good ales not quite so readily made, within past few days. Corn-receipts fair, demand good, price Corn—receipts fair, demand good, prices have advanced since our last, 7 to 9 per bus., a large number of Eastern and some foreign vessels in port waiting cargoes.

Cotton is dull. Black Eye Pens are wanted. Flarseed, Beeswax and Dried Apples are in fair supply and sell at quotations.

Bacon—fair stock, Western sides and shoulders, with increased sales at reduced quotations. Sales of Nos. 1, 2 & 3 Mackerel $12.50, 11.50 and 10.00.

Business Cards. CEO. W. COTHRAM. Attorney & Counsellor, at Law. LOCKPORT, NIAGARA COUNTY, N. Y.

A. PERRY SPERRY. BELL, BROOKS, PACE & CO.,

IMPORTERS & DEALERS IN STAPLE AND FANCY No. 89 Chambers, and 71 Reade Street, 1856.] NEW YORK. [2-1y

JOHN W. PAYNE, ATTORNEY AT LAW,
HAVING permanently located in Greensboro, N.C., will attend the Course of Randolph, Davidson, and Guilford, and promptly attend to the collection of all claims placed in his hands.

Jan. 8, 1857. SAMPSON LANIER

STAPLE AND FANCY SILK GOODS,

K. M. MURCHISON. Commission Merchant No. 104 WALL STREET, NEW YORK.

USUAL ADVANCES ON CONSIGNMENTS.

ROWLAND & BROTHERS, COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA,

A RE prepared to receive and dispose of, advantageously, any quantity of flour from Orange, Alamance, Guilford and neighboring counties. Many years experience with every facility and ability enables are consequences. sfaction and promptness in all sales. We have

DR. WM. C. SMITH, HAVING located in Greensbore, will attend all calls in town or country. He may be found at all times at his office, adjoining R. G. Lindsay's Store, formerly occupied by Dr. Freeman.

Hats and Caps may be found at the cash ore of R. N. CALDWELL.

large lot of FLUID LAMPS just received

W. OGBURN, C. C. COLE, JAMES W. ALBRIGHT.

Corresponding Editors.

B. G. STAPLES, Portsmouth, Va.

LLIAN R. HUNTER, South Carolins,

SATURDAY, JAN. 16, 1858.

Positive Arrangement. Subscribers receiving their papers with a cross mark are notified thereby that their subscription will expire in four weeks, and unless renewing within that time their names will be crased from

TERMS: ...$ 2.00 No paper sent unless the money accom

es the order, nor will the paper be sent onger than paid for. Tel Specimen copies sent gratis, on applica-Address, OGBURN, COLE & ALBRIGHT, WM. R. HUNTER :- We are pleased to see the many complimentary notices, in the Georgia papers, of the lectures of our Cor. Editor, Wm. R. Hunter, Esq., on the subjects of Temperance and Sun day Schools. One says "Mr. Hunter battles with the demon Intemperance, with an carnestness, beauty of language and thrilling eloquence which completely fascinates his hearers for hours at a time. Of the truth of this we had a demonstration on Thursday night, for he held his audience spell-bound for more than two hours."

Ð.

of

S,

rom ring very sat-

t,

NG

all ay's

ER

ines

ore,

ER,

N. Cof-

man, T tt,

PES

Pins

Ť.

t of Cash LL.

Another: "The lecturer, Mr. W. R. Hunter, is well known throughout the State, as an estimable and talented gentleman, and a man of rare powers as a popular lecturer. He has been laboring in various parts of Georgia, for more than a various parts of Georgia, for more than a sadress of Monday night. It was enterly to an acceptance and the Sablocal in its application, touching upon the United States to make war upon the bath School cause, and the press and peobath School cause be taken at par, for subscription to the in the Struggle. Times. In sending a club, with a large

CONGRESS.

MONDAY Jan. 4.—Both Houses re-asembled to-day, after their holyday recess. In the Senate several bills were introduced, among them, one for the admission of Kansas, by Mr. Pugh, offered as a compromise, and referred to the committee on Territoquesting the President, as far as may be at or near the port of San Juan, in Nicaadjoining Territories.

Tuesday.—But little was done in the sequences almost inevitably follow. Senate to-day. The petition of Mr. Mailloird, setting forth grievances inflicted upon him, to acknowledge Walker as a prisoner; yet being an American citizen, by British civil he is still resolved to inforce the neutralited to the Secretary of State for consideration by the President. A French Spoliation bill Monroe's Message as good authority. He was introduced and refered to a special also notices the acts of Congress upon the committee of seven.

on the state of the Union on the President's tion of the laws, to be a limited, or "set on foot," annual message. The day was spent in discussing that part having reference to rying on of any such expedition or enterthe inforcement of the Neutrality Laws.
The discussion, of course, looked only at the United States against the territories or the arrest of Walker, and without concluding the debate, the committee rose, and the House adjourned.

WEDNESDAY :- Among the numerous For these reasons, had Commodore Paul petitions presented in the Senate this morn-ing, one prayed for an increase of the sala-with General Walker and his command or ry of the President of the United States. board, at any period before they entered After disposing of the multitudinous morning business, the Senate proceeded to the have prevented them from "carrying on" consideration of Mr. Crittenden's resolu- the expedition, and have been not only a tions, which propose that, in consideration justifiable but a praiseworthy act. of the financial condition of the country and its industrial interests, as well as of the wants and embarrassments of the Treaments of the Tre sury, the rates of duty levied under the tariff act of the 3d of March, 1857, ought tariff act of the 3d of Mar beloved old fellow "modestly carry the plate through the aisle," as he is in the present mode of ascertaining the dutiable present mode of ascertaining the dutiable as experience has demonstrated that the present mode of ascertaining the dutiable adventurer to rob, plunder and murder the see Irving, without bothering him at Sun-of its office of kindness, which steals on accompanied by their agent, have arrived

Government and the honest importer, a usurpation of the war-making power which respondence with Paraguay, Brazil and Spain; which was adopted, with an amendment proposed by Mr. Zollicoffer, calling foundation of the law of nations is contained for the same and the first state of the same and the first state of the same and the sa

On motion of Mr. J. Clancy Jones, the thouse resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole, and resumed the consideration of the President's message; the question being upon the proposition to refer the neutrality law to a special committee.

And the debates upon this subject constitutions are a stricted who would call any other nation to a stricted who would call any other nation to a stricted second, then we should one than the message of the strict of the constitution of the president and the should one to strict the second that mensatories do to you, do ye even so to them." Tried by this unerring rule, we should be sever-ton to you do ye even so to them." Tried by this unerring rule, we should be sever-ton to you do ye even so to them." Tried by this unerring rule, we should be sever-ton to you do ye even so to them." Tried by this unerring rule, we should be sever-ton to you do ye even so to them." Tried by this unerring rule, we should be sever-ton to you do ye even so to them." Tried by this unerring rule, we should be sever-ton to a support to you do ye even so to them." Tried by this unerring rule, we should be sever-ton to a support to you do ye even so to them." Tried by this unerring rule, we should be sever-ton to you do ye even so to them." Tried by this unerring rule, we should be sever-ton to you do you do ye even so to them." Tried by this unerring rule, we should be sever-ton to you do you do ye even so to them." Tried by this unerring rule, we should be sever-ton to you do yo GREENSBOROUGH, N. C.

> resolution was adopted directing the Committee on Foreign Relations to inquire in-Carolina, successor to the late Judge Butings.
>
> It is beyond question the destiny of our lit is beyond question the destiny of our little question the desti

The House adjourned over to Monday.

TEMPERANCE ADDRESS :- We shall attempt no eulogy upon Prof. Sterling's pie, where he has been, bear testimony in his favor. His heart is in this good work, and the labors of his life are devoted to it, with rare success. We bid him Godspeed."

To Subscribers:—Good bills current in the State, where subscribers live, will in the State, where subscribers live, will increases in effectiveness as he continues us with dread and suspicion. It is our found elsewhers. It is written without much expense of words, coming to the point explicitly, yet fully. We will out a few passages, principally explanatory:

In capturing General Walker and his pedition of a similar character again evade the visilance of our offs. The possible was a small entered, and through it to our Pacific possessions. This policy was commenced under favorable suspices, when the expedition, under the command of Gen. Walker, escaped from our territories and proceeded to Punta Arenas. Should another expedition of a similar character again evade the visilance of our offs. On a page 12. ries. A resolution was also adopted, re-questing the President, as far as may be compatible with the public interests, to ror. It is quite evident, however, from communicate to the Senate the correspon-the communications herewith transmitted, dence, instructions, and orders to the Uni-that this was done from pure and patriotic ted States Naval forces on the coast of motives, and in the sincere conviction that Central America, connected with the arrest of William Walker, and his associates, to prose the part of San Lun in Nicaragua, she has sustained no injury by the act of Commodore Paulding ragua; also, to transmit such further in- This has inured to her benefit, and relieved formation as he may possess relative to hat event.—See Message elsewhere in this would have any right to complain of the violation of her territory: and it is quite certain she will never exercise this right. It unquestionably does not lie in the mouth of her invaders to complain in her name at law in the several county courts of Gen. Walker, and requesting all that she has been rescued by Commedice. formation as he may possess relative to her from a dreaded invasion. She alone that event.—See Message elsewhere in this would have any right to complain of the documents of the President relating thereto. On motion of Mr. Cobb, a resolution was adopted instructions the Committee on

Was adopted instructions the Committee on

L. W. Ell. was adopted, instructing the Committee on marines in Nicaragua, whether with o Territories to report an opinion whether or without her consent, for the purpose of not the organic act of Utah ought to be making war upon any military force what repealed, and that Territory attached to no matter from whence they come. Mr. Zollikoffer introduced a bill provid-og for the establishment of a branch Miliing for the establishment of a branch Mili-structions are the best and safest guides tary Academy at the Hermitage, Tennes- for all officers, civil and military, and when they transcend these limits, and act upon their own personal responsibility, evil con-ty laws, of the value of which, in his esti-House went into committee of the whole tion of the laws, to be a military expedidomain of any foreign prince or State, or of any colony, district, or people with whom the United States are at peace."

the port of San Juan de Nicaragua, and conducted them back to Mobile this would system of home valuation ought to be immediately substituted. He proceeded at some length to sustain these positions.

A small bill to detach Selma, Alabama, from the collection district of New Orleans, and attach it to the district of Mobile, was reported by Mr. Clay, and passed.

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business at a carly hom. The Senate proceeded to the considera-tion of executive business at an early hour. In the House, Mr. Clingman, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a resolution calling on the President for cor-prevent them from burning down cities and also for correspondence with New Grenada.

On motion of Mr. J. Clancy Jones, the

But if motives of duty were not sufficient to restrain us from engaging in such mittee on Foreign Relations to inquire into the expediency of making an appropriation for the compensation of a Minister Plenipotentiary to Japan, and of other United States officers in that Empire.—

The Hon. James H. Hammond, of South
The Hon. James H. Hammond, of South

over to Monday in hower of the battle of New Orleans, its anniversary taking place to-morrow.

In the House, the members resolved

In the House, the members resolved In the House, the members resolved themselves into the committee of the whole, nothing can eventually arrest its progress. for further consideration of the President's

If permitted to go there, peacefully, Central America will soon contain an American population, which will confer blessings and benefits as well upon the natives as fying or repealing the neutrality law to a their respective Governments. Liberty, under the restraint of law, will preserve domestic peace; whilst the different transit routes across the isthmus, in which we are so deeply interested, will have assured protection.

Nothing has retarded this happy condiaddress on Monday night. It was chiefly tion of affairs so much as the unlawful exor rather destruction of morals both in of the number of American citizens who true policy to remove this apprehension, and to convince them that we intend to do them good, and not evil. We desire, as most legitimate feelings are too sacred amount of money, it would be better to get a check, if convenient.

The President's Message on the Arrest of Walker.

The Message of the President, in reply transit route across the isthmus, not only for tears' and consumers alike health and The Message of the President, in reply to enquiries from Congress, gives more light on the difficulties between the United States and Gen. Walker, than we have the vigilance of our officers and proceed to Nicaragua, this would be fatal, at least for a season, to the peaceful settlement of these countries and to the policy of American progress. The truth is, that no Administration can successfully conduct the foreign affairs of the country in Central aged? Does the world look heartless and America, or anywhere else, if it is to be icy? Here is a consoling bit for you by interferred with at every step by lawless military expeditions "set on foot" in the

J. J. Martin, Martin county. J. F. Murrell, Opslow. J. W. Ellis. Bladen. Josiah Collins, Washington county. Asa Ross, Brunswick. George C. Woodley, Lenoir. Abour S. Williams, Martin. David F. Caldwell, Greensborough. J. R. Bulla, Asheborough. Needham B. Cobb, Goldsborough. Gilbert M. Patterson, Richmond county, A. B. McEachin, Robeson.

omas D. Williams, Warrenton. L. W. Humphrey, Onslow. John G. Yancey, Madison county. E. J. Gaines, Montgomery. Seaton Gales, Raleigh.

J. R. Douhtie, Elizabeth City. P. J. Sinclair, Pittsburg, Pa. The following gentlemen wore exam ined on Thursday and admitted to practice in the several Superior Courts of this State as Attorneys and Counsellors at law

R. H. Broadfield, Salisbury. Wm. Henry Bagley, Elizabeth City. C. W. Grandy, jr., do J. H. Abell. Johnston. R. H. Battle, Orange. John S. Moore, Wayne. Luther Blue, Richmond county. James P. Holderby, Rockingham county, Wm. L. Scott, Greensboro' Jacob C. Hitchcock, Davidson. J. N. Stallings, Duplin. John A. Stanley, Beaufort county. John B Gilliam, Bertie.

Sydney A. Smith, Johnston. WASHINGTON IRVING, now seventy-five years old, walks to Dr Creighton's Church, in Tarrytown, (of which we believe he is a vestryman,) and back five miles, nearly every Sunday .- New York Post.

J. E. Short, Washington county.

Leisure Readings;

WE FIND IN

Books, Reviews, Magazines, and Papers.

In a letter from Mr. Walsh, dated Paris Nov. 26th; we find an interesting para-

The age of Russia.

In 1862 the Czar of Russia will erect a monument commemorative of the one thousandth year of the Russian empire.—
The national life of ten centuries has an imposing, venerable aspect. The government has always been the same—an autocracy. The administration has varied according to the character and fortunes of each ruler. The devotion of the people to the sceptre is still, as heretofore, unlimited, like the imperial power—a loyalty reaching religious worship. The recent advanced in the lower of the beautiful read.

How beautiful! The christian, no less the lower of the beautiful will read. reaching religious worship. The recentaddress of the Metropolitan (the high prelate) of Moscow to Alexander II on his visit to the capital shadows out the relations be A Beautiful Thought. And the debates upon this subject consumed the day.

Thursday:—In the Senate petitons were presented by Col. Colf for a renewal of his patent for his repeating firearm; one from the State of New York remind the subject constructed and the subject cons of his patent for his repeating firearm; one from the State of New York praying the adoption of some practical measures for a cooperation between the people North and South in the emancipation of Slavery.

A resolution was adopted directing the Com-Miracles the Empress remained for some time on their kees before the relics of St. Alexis. The Emperous on after mounted his horse and reviewed the troops and cadets. Egbert, the first so'e monarch of England, began his reign in 827; thus the monarchy is upwards of a thousand years. More than fourteen hundred are claimed for that of France. The republic of ancient Rome did not endure balf as interesting the same and well-formed limbs, which her snowy drapery hardly appears to resture upward. claimed for that of France. The republic of ancient Rome did not endure balf as Many would be poets scribble about wo-men's hearts without knowing anything about those wonderful and mysterious or gans. Lady Blessington reproved this fol ly once. She alleged that but very few men understood the feelings of women.— "Sensitive and easily wounded as we are," said she: "oblized to call up pride to sup port us in trials that always marks beaund, how often are we compelled to assume the semblance of coldness and indifference when the heart only bleeds; and the decent composure put on with our visiting garments to appear in public, and, like them, worn for a few hours, are with them being series and all them being series. marks behind, how often are we compelled them laid aside; and all the dreariness, we cannot, dare not, complain; sympathy most legitimate feelings are too sacred in female estimation to be exposed; and for tears,' and consumes alike health and peace, a man with impunity may express all pay, more—than he feels; court and meet sympathy, while his leisure hours are checred by employment and pleasures, the latter too often such as ought to prove how little he stood in need of compassion, ex-

To the young men, more especially just beginning life; having received during the past year many buffetings, disappointments; much opposition and but little encouragement, even from those you most assuredly

Never give up.

Never give up! it is wiser and better

Never give up! there are chances and changes Helping the hopeful, a hundred to one, And through the chaos High Wisdom arranges Ever success, -if you'll only hope on Never give up! for the wisest are boldes Knowing that Providence mingles the cup, And of all maxims the best, as the oldest, Is the true watchword of Never give up!

Never give up!—tho' the grape-shot may rattle Or the full thunder cloud over your hard Never give up:—tho' the grape-shot may rattle Or the full thunder cloud over you burst, Stand like a rock,—and the storm or the battle Little shall harm you, tho' doing their worst; Never give up:—if adversity presses, Providence wisely has mingled the cup, And the best councel, in all your distresses, Is the stout watchword of Never give up!

The reader may have seen the follow. ular meeting. ng paragraph before, as we find it affoat ing paragraph before, as we had it affoat without a credit; but it is most exquisite-by vote of a majority of the members present, ly beautiful, and wishing to preserve it, at any meeting. we give it a place in this column of the Ant. VI. The order of proceedings shall be,

Charity.

Night kissed the young rose, and it bent softly to sleep. Stars shone, and pure dewdrops hung upon its bosom, and watch-ed its sweet slumbers. Morning came with its dancing breezes, and they whispered to the young rose and it awoke joyous and smiling. Lightly it danced to and fro in all the loveliness of health and young innocence. Then came the ardent sun-god. sweeping fram the east, and smote young 10 Appointment of committees. rose with its scorehing rays, and it fainted.
Now the gentle breeze which had been 12 Adjournment. gamboling over the sea, pushing on the curring the old mill faming the brow of childhood—came tripping along on her errand of mercy and love, and when she saw the young rose she hastened to kiss it, and foundly bathed its furthead is colored. saw the young rose she hastened to kiss it, and fondly bathed its forehead in cool re
Mr. Wm. M. Wiley was chosen to read freshing showers, and the young rose revived and looked and smiled in gratitude to the kind breeze; but she hurried quickly away, for she soon perceived that a delicious fragrance had been poured on her A correspondent of the Home Journal wings by the grateful rose; and the kind value of imported goods is productive of unoffending citizens of neighboring States myside, have a fine chance at him at this the heart like rich perfume to bless and to here on the way to Florida to induce Bilmonstrous frauds, injurious alike to the who have never done them harm. It is a church.

If any person, particularly young peo-

A few of the best things essary to enumerate the last two classes, our Richmond, Va., Jno. R. Thompson. bowever, as they are included in the first) Editor. The 26th volume commenced distant star. The immortality of man's spiritual nature was unknown, his future of ancient Rome did not endure balf as long.

The following was intended as a hit at Byron, but its application may be generalized.

Concealed in an impressive gesture upward where night appeared to have placed her darkest pavilion, while on her left reposed her delicate companion, in form and countenance the contrast of the other, for she tenance the contrast of the other, for she was drooping like a flewer moistened by refreshing dews, and her bright but troubled eyes scanned the air with ardent varying glances. Suddently a light like the sun flashed out from heaven, and Faith and the san flashed out from heaven, and Faith and rice. There were dies traces of sorrow on his rice. There were diep traces of sorrow on his countenance, though no one know why he grieved, for he lived in the practice of every virtue, and was loved by all the good and wise. By and by at was rumored that the stranger worked miracles! That the blind the death spade and the death and the dea saw, the dumb spoke, and the dead leaped to life at his touch! That when he com-manded, the ocean moderated its chafing tide, and the very thunders articulated he is the Son of God. Enry assailed him to form your acquaintance. Your style with the charge of sorcery, and the voice is pleasant and easy, and your articles, of the impious judge: condemned him to will be read with much interest. The ourselves, and are but the more miserable from the constraint we submit to. A wo-death. Slowly and thickly guarded he as-

Proceedings of the Guilford Ed-ucational Association.

The Association met in Greensboro, on The Association met in Greensboro, on Saturday 9th, 1858, according to adjournment. The President, E. W. Ogburn, Esq., in the chair. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. T. M. Jones. pened with prayer by Rev. T. M. Jones.

After the proceedings of the previous meeting were read, the names of Rev. T. M. Jones and M. S. Sherwood, Esq., were enrolled as members of the Association.

The committee appointed to draft Bylaws, were called on to report, and after the report was read, the following By-

BY-LAWS. Ant. I. Sect. 1st. The regular meetings of nually, into the hands of the Treasurer, to be expended as the Association may direct.

Association shall be elected at the meeting preceding the meeting of said Association. ART. IV. Sect. 1st. At each regular meeting question shall be chosen, to be discussed at the next regular meeting. Sec. 2nd. There shall be a standing committee of three, appointed annually, at the meeting in January, who shall propose not less than three questions, at each meeting, from which the Association may make a selection. Sec. 3rd. There shall be appointed, at each regular meeting, one member to read an Essay, and one to deliver an Address at the next reg-

ART. V. Any person constitutionally eligible.

as follows :

1 Prayer.

Reading the minutes of preceding meeting. Election of new members

11 Irregular business.

Messrs, S. Lander, Wm. M. Wiley and an Essay, and Mr. J. D. Campbell to de-liver an Address at our next meeting. The Association then adjourned to meet t the regular time—2nd Saturday in March.

E. W. OGBURN, Pres. J. D. CAMPBELL, Sec. .

REVIEWS.

however, as they are included in the first) but if any person, we say, feel curious since Christmas, perhaps the cause may suggest the cure. Then read this Scrap of Experience.

Fanny Jones says that when she was in love she felt as if she were in a tunnel, with a train of cars coming both ways. Jaimicks says that when he was in love the felt as if he were being hung—and had a cat in his hat and a peck of bumble bees under his works.

MER. Richmond, Va., Jno. R. Thompson, the Eastern Virginia Christma Conference, any with Editor. The 26th volume commenced with Editor. The 26th volume courselves of the Editor. The 26th volume commenced THE SOURHERN LITERARY MESSEN

RUSSEL'S MAGAZINE for January presents an interesting table of contents; and we imagine the reader will not be disap "Russel' is notes showy, has not the many ridiculous and fantastic "pictures" of some of the oth inst., by Rev. William J. Ogburn, Dr. JOHN W. WINCHES-ofthe monthlies, yet with the readers, we TER to Miss BETTLE G., daughter of G. W. Russel' is not as showy, has not the many presume it will stand and unblushing list. It is a Southern Magazine, and should receive the Southern patronage, which its merits very justly deserves. Address of Louisburg. N. C., and Miss SARAH A. BRIGGS, of Richmond, Va. "Russel's aguzine, Charleston, S. C.," and enclo e $3; or send us $4 and take the

THE SOUTHERN DIAL is the name of a of man's new monthly magazine, published in Monthis future mystery.

Sam'orl, with a large list of able contributors from all the Southern States. The dof God's first number of the "Dia", is before us. and it is devoted main't to the discussion of social and political, which it involves.— The Dial contains 48 pages, at 82 a year. J. D. Williams, Propri

A NEW COUNTERPIET DETECTER. Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers lave ust commenced the publication of "Peter-son's Philadelphia Counterfeit Detector and Son's Philadelphia Counterfeit Detector and Bank Note List"—a monthly quarto publication which contains all the information that can be obtained in regard to all Counterfeit, Broken Banks, and the rates of discount on all the Bank Notes of the country Messrs. Drexel & Co., will supervise it and make the corrections in each number of the country of t Hope hailed with exulting songs the ascending Star of Bethlehem.

Years rolled away, and a stranger was seen in Jerusalem. He was a meek, unassuning man, whose happiness seemed to consist in acts of benevolence to the human race. There were does traces of surrow on his The price is but $1. a year. To

PRIVATE CORNER.

CLARENCE MELVIN :-- We are happy death. Slowly and thickly guarded he ascended the hill of Calvary. A heavy cross bent him to the earth. But Faith leaned upon his arm, and Hope dipping her pinions in his blood, mounted to the skies.

Reported for the Tires.

permit us to read and profit solely, until the developments of that "philosophical another column, is written with much care, and we are greatly obliged to the writer both for his interest in the Times and his interesting letter. The reader can almost realize a squeeze through the President's Mansion. Read the Waif....... MARCUS: Glad to receive another supply of questions. To the liesure little on they may be valuable and interesting.

Ant. I. Sect. 1st. The regular meetings of this Association shall be on the 2nd Saturday of the following months—viz.: January, March, May, July, September and November.

Sec. 2nd. The regular place of meeting shall be on the 2nd Saturday in September.

Sec. 3rd. The regular place of meeting will be the Hall of the Greensboro High School, until changed by the Association.

Ant. II. Each member shall pay 50 cts annually, into the hands of the Transparer, to be considered in the great literary sheet of the South. It is a model paper, and if the publishers fail to receive unlimited naturanage, it will not share of public patronage. to receive unlimited patronage, it will not be because they have not deserved it. We ART. III. Delegates to the State Educational wish them that success which their indus-wish them that success which their industry merits.

Kentuckey:—The following resolutions have been introduced in the Kentucky Legislature, in relation to the proposed national bankrupt law:

"The General Assembly has seen with concern that an attempt is about to be made under the recommendation of the President of the United States and of the President of the Treasury, to bring all the banking institutions and railroad corporations of the country under the operation of a national bankrupt law, and regards such proposed legislation as a dangerous assumption of power by Congress over subjects properly within the control of the several States: Be it therefore "Resolved by the General Assembly of Resolved Re

"Resolved by the General Assembly of Dec, 1877 the Common-resulth of Kentucky, That the people of Kantucky prefer keeping the control of their banks and railroads to themselves, and earnestly protest against the transfer of that control to the Federal services on the first Monday in January, 1858. Terms

I Election of now members.

Election of delegates to State Association.

Election of officers.

Reports of committees.

Regular business—1st. Essays and addresses—2nd. Discussions on them—3rd. Discussion of the question for debate and vote on it—4th. Selection of question.

Appointment of members to read essays and deliver addresses is an extracted by their several banking institutions, by a suspension of the question of question.

Appointment of members to read essays and deliver addresses.

E. W. Ogburn & Co. Dec. 20th. '651. sion of specie payments; and this power should be so exercised as to promote the should be so exercised as to promote the welfare of their citizens, and ought not to be invaded by Congress.

"Resolved, That the passage by Congress of a national bankrupt act, application of the promote of the printing business. A good English education regress of a national bankrupt act, application of the printing business. A good English education reguired. be invaded by Congress.

mboling over the sea, pushing on the meson below the meson of the meso

Bleeding at the Lungs Cured. Seth W. Fowle;

Esq., - Dear Sir: Having been attacked with Hetmorrhage of the Lungs, which left me with a troublesome cough and the usual debility consequent upon such an attack, and having cured myself by the use of Wistar's Balsam of the foreign the state of the state. We will take pleasure in filling all orders—large for signature. cured myself by the use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, I feel it a pleasure and a duty to testify to its merits. My general faith in Salem N. C. Jan. 1888. 104-28 to testify to its merits. My general faith in patent medicines is small: but for those who are suffering under puemonry attacks, I am persuaded that the Balsam is an excellent preparation.

Yours, very truly,

John R. Childs, Editor Chicopee Telegraph, Chicopee, Mass. Fob. 20, 1854.

None genuine unless signed i, Butts on the wrapper. Sold by Agents every where.

MARRIED,

Thursday evening the 7th inst, by Rev. Wellons, Rev. EDWIN W. BEALE, of

On the same, 20th Dec. by J. Chapp. Esq., Mr. MARTIN SHEPHERD and Mr., S. SHAT-TERLY, widew of Solomon Shatterly, dec'd,

On the same, 20th Dec., by H. Shoffner, Esq., Mr. ELI GREESON and Miss MARY SMITH, daughter of Peter Smith, dee'd, all of Guilfort'. Brown, all of Guilford.

The New York correspondent of the Baittimore Sun states that Professor Hed-LUCY HOWARD'S JOURNAL. By MIS.
L. H. Sigourney; Harper & Brothers,
New York, 1859.

We are indebted to the author for a copy of this work, and shall notice more
copy of this work, and shall notice more of the city of New York.

L'RESH ARRIVALS .- Per Schr.

Reschi Arkiv Als. — Per Schr.
Bennett Flanner and R. W. Brown, from
lew York:

25 Bage Green Rio Coffee,
20 Bbis C. Yellow Sugar,
60 B xes Dairy Cheese,
10 do English do
10 Kegs Goshen Butter.
4 Bbis W. B. Elephant Oil. Low for ash.

GEO H KELLEY.
Wimington Jan. 11

h. Wilmington, Jan. 11

MULLETS.—5 Bbls OF PRIME in Oak bbls. Low for cash, at Wilmington, Jan. 11 GEO H KELLEY.

CRAHAM MALE ACADEMY.

No extra charges. (105:2w) Graham, N. C., Jan. 6th, 1858.

MANTUA-MAKING. MANTUA-MAKING.

MRS. CRITTENDEN & SISTER are now prepared to do all binds of work, connected with the Mantua-making business, in the latest and best style. A trial is all that is asked to warrant entire satisfaction. Residence on Greene street, opposite the Old Factory.

Jan. 16, 1868. (105.1y)

A nnals of Southern Methodism, 1856, Deems' for sale by June 24. E. W. OGBURN & Co. L'ALL DISTRIBUTION-COM-

No. 1 $67.76 No. 27 $69.52 No. 55 $88.00 2 65.86 28 104.72 64 88 00 64 88.60 65 97.68 66 79.20 87 102.08 58 64.66 69 92.40 60 62.48 60.72 55.44 62.48 52.80 61.60 48.40 59.84 62.48 24.64 125.84 61.60 72 46.64 73 45.76 74 69.52 75 65.12

Terms the same as heretofore

Dec. 17th, 1857. E. F. WATSON.

For particulars address the principal, Greensbore', N. C.

DRINTING & WRAPPING PA-PER.—The andersigned are prepared at all times to manufacture Printing Paper of firstrate quality—and of any size used in this

The following letter was received from Mrs. Sigourney a short time since. We return our thanks to the authoress, and made the air vocal with their delightful insert the poem with pleasure:

Gentlemen: In the number of the Times for the 12th instant, I noticed a poem with the name of lanthe, and entitled "No God," which reminded me so strongly of one on the same subject in my octavo volume of Poems, published in Philadelphia, some eight years since, that I enclose a copy to you, thinking you might perhaps like to insert it, as a mark of the similarity which sometimes pervades different minds, in considering the same

NO GOD.

4. The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God."
The Psalmist.

" No God! no God." The simplest flower That in the wild is found, Shrinke, as it tastes its cup of dew
And trembles at the sound,—
"No God?"—astonish'd Echo cries
From out her cavern hoar,
And every wandering bird that flies,
Reproves the atheist lore.

The solemn forest rears its head The solems forest rears its head The Maker to proclaim, The br oklet, on its crystal wave Doth leap to grave His name, High swells the hourse, indignant Sea Along its billowy track, And Etna, from a lip of fire Doth hurl the faischood back.

The Palm tree, with its princely crest, The Cocoa's leafy shade,
The Bread-fruit bending to its lord
In you far island-glade,
The wingerload The winged seeds that borne by winds
The roving Sparrows feed.—
The melon mid the desert sands
Refute the scorner's creed.

" No God?"-With indignation fierce "No God?"—With indignation never The ferrent Sun is stirr'd,
And the pale moon turns paler still,
At such an impious word,
While from their burning thrones, the stars
Look down with wrathful eye
That thus a worm of dust should mock Elemal majesty,
L. H. S.

To afford an opportunity for comparison, we republish the poem by lanthe.

"XO GOD!"

BY IANTHE.

Each tiny flower, that drinks the dew, At eve, or blushing light.

At eve, or blushing light.

Each twinking star, that burns in blue,
Watching the weary night;—
Each quivering leaf, each budding tree,
That blooms within the wood;
Each blade of grass upon the lea,
Whispers "There is a God!"

The birds, that soar 'neath heaven's blue dot
Warbling their songs of glee:—
The rapid streams as on they roam,
Swelling the hoary sea:— The moon-beams glancing on the lake— Kissing the weeping sod— Gleaming upon the falling flake— All say "There is a God!"

The brilliant hae of every flower, That blooms within the vale—
The gentle pattering of the shower—
The sighing of the gale:—
The glistening dew, at early morn,
That decks the grassy clod— The yellow fields of waving corn— Each says "There is a God!"

"No God!" The thunder is His voice,

WRITTEN FOR THE TIMES. A Leaf from my Journal.

BY INA CLAYTON.

"Excuse me, Lina, but-" persisted the mischievous Nora, "that such a little flirt as you, who was thronged with suitors ready to die or commit any other foolish enormity for you, should so unhesitatingly surrender yourself up to that ethereal Frank of yours quite astonishes me."
"Do quit your nonsense, Nora."

consider a moment, Lina, there was the talented lawyer C- whom you and imitate encouraged, even until you one day sur prised him with your wedding card, and antil then he never dreamed of your attachment to Frank.'

the picture of despair."

an heiress next week, I ejaculated.

and accomplished N- who would same way. have surrounded you with every luxury, and his love and admiration for you were

"Its excess quite sickened me, Nora,

throwing him into ejaculations of surprise

TOTAL ECLIPSES FOR THE NEXT FIFTY YEARS .- Calculations have been made at FATTENING POULTRY .- Coop up poul-Years.—Calculations have been made at the observatory of Paris, that from the prethe observatory of Paris, that from the prethe observatory of Paris, that from the pretiry to fatten, and they will do well up to
may be kept out of grain by using salt.

Weevie.—Inese troublesome peasis,
try to fatten, and they will do well up to
may be kept out of grain by using salt.

Weevie.—Inese troublesome peasis,
try to fatten, and they will do well up to
may be kept out of grain by using salt.

Weevie.—Inese troublesome peasis,
try to fatten, and they will do well up to Sprinkle a little fine salt on the bottom
the Wild Cherry Bark and Tar, is doing the Wild Cherry Bark and Tar, 1896, and 1900; so that from the year die

1000 to 1900 there will have been 255 . USEFUL INFORMATION clipses of the sun, with only one total fo ris-on August 12th, 1653.

A RETROSPECT.

ву номо.

Another venr is drawing to a close, and we are naturally inclined to turn our thoughts to the past. The beauty of spring, the love-liness of summer and the abundance of that built their nests on our trees, and made the air vocal with their delightful songs, have taken their departure to a warmer chime. The forests where they spent the summer now look desolate and dreary, deprived of their foliage, and the cold winds are single nourself digree.

dreary, deprived of their foliage, and the cold winds are singing mournful dirges among the branches.

We collect our little family around the blazing fire, and spend the long winter evenings in conversation on various subjects, in reading, writing or reflecting on the scenes of other days. We speak of the blazers of another tears are fast to the control of the tears of the tears. changes of another days. We speak of the changes of another year;—of that youth who commenced the journey up the hill of science with the most flattering prospects of success, but who was suddenly called away from earthly scenes;—of that of success, but who was suddenly called away from earthly scenes;—of that enterprising man of middle age who was engage ed in a prosperous business, and who lived contented and happy, but who by a reverse of fortune was unexpectedly deprived of his property, and left destitute;—of that mother and those orphan children whose father, after spending several years in Californis, was returning home to meet his calk knowledge was then very limited. fornia, was returning home to meet his much loved family, but who suddenly found a watery grave by the sinking of the steama watery grave by the sinking of the steamer;—of that poor old woman who had liver it is not poo ed out her threescore years and ten, and who had become a burden to her ungrateized and savage—so that we know of but-our most intimate and valued friends have surface a rich yellow substance, unknown to him before, and which could have been our turn must come to follow "that innumerable caravan that moves to the pale realms of shade." And whenever that summons comes each of us must depart; summons comes each of us must depart; the high, the low, the rich and the poor: This is the way butter is now churned by the little prattling child, and the old man whose head is white with the snows of many winters, is each liable to be cut down. The loving wife must speak the last kind word to her affectionate husband, and her word to her affectionate husband, and the steed, and trots up his butter. This, we believe, could not have been the way but the inhabitants. little ones. Sweet friendships must be ter was first discovered by the inhabitants made only to be broken and obscured in of Western Europe, as their most ancient

As the sands of another year are almost run, it seems a very suitable time to ask ourselves how much intellectual or moral improvement we have made, and how much good have we accomplished. And if we can discover, by reviewing the same place that butter does with us. As an article of diet, we are only acquainted with the butter made from cows' milks, but butter made from cows' milks, but butter made from cows' milks. As the sands of another year are almost | er know. good have we accomplished. And if we can discover, by reviewing the past, that opportunities for doing or getting good, have been neglected, and that we have not discharged aright the duties of our various avocations, we should endeavor to form discharged aright the duties of our various avocations, we should endeavor to form new resolutions, and by the experience of the past, learn how to spend the future to a better advantage. Our responsibilities are increasing every year, and much more is required of the present generation than of those who preceded us. Facilities for accomplishing great and noble results are numerous and available. Science and art have combined their aid to extend the blessings of civilization and christianity through. ings of civilization and christianity throughted with lightning speed, and knowledge who have devoted so much attention to imted with lightning speed, and knowledge is increased, so that the humble peasant and the honored ruler may consilt enter the speed and acclimatize such a valuable breed and the honored ruler may equally enjoy its advantages. The tyrannical thrones of its advantages. The tyrannical thrones of the eastern empires are crumbing from starve. Their milk is good, their flesh extheir foundations, and the onward march their foundations, and the onward march of liberty is everywhere perceptible. Even durable fabrics for cold weather. Goats' the most idelatrous and benighted nations milk and butter are also common in some of the earth have, within a short time, experioneed some of the blessed influences of parts of Europe.

"What made you marry Frank Webster?" I looked up in utter astonishment.
"Why Leonora Waters, what can you mean?"

The great motto of our age is Progress?
And if we look back only a few brief years to the time when we were children, or to the years when our parents were young, we shall be astonished at the advancement unican?"

A PRETTY WIDOW.—The Springfield the world has made in science and art, in eivilization and christianity. And who can tell what grand and noble results an acid. In some dairies the whole milk is and she has a pair of pretty eyes, and civilization and christianity. And who can tell what grand and noble results another generation may accomplish? As churned to obtain the butter; in others, two pretty little feet. No matter what her we go forth into our various spheres of part in the broad field of life, that we may perform some worthy deeds, and leave being simple suggestions are worthy of ob- juice of carrots, and the flowers of the mari-"Well, the last time I saw him he was servation: Add one ounce of alumn to the last water used to rinse children's Nevertheless, he is to be married to dresses, and they will be rendered unia-feed impart their strong and peculiar flammable, or so slightly combustible that vor to milk. This is the case with turnips, "And think of the poor author, the vic-timof suicide, and you Lina were the cause, and would not flame. This is a simple except in very limited quantities. In winhe died with your name on his lips."

"A circumstance unforeseen by me."

"Item of children. Bed cartains, and line best kind of food is a question of no small " Doubtless, and then there was the rich en in general, may also be treated in the significance is there in the faintest word man utters, in the humblest act man does, but Frank with his care-for-nothing-ways took my heart by storm, and ere I was a-took ware, almost, I had made promises bind-be forgotten by us, but they neve can be ing for life. I loved, or at least thought an enter the properties of the p I did, notwithstanding my wedding day was the most sorrowful one of my life."

"You were thinking of the hearts you had broken, oh Lina."

unspoken—they never can be undone.—
They have preceded us to the presence of God's people, to be former at the same time being much superior.

unspoken—they never can be undone.—
They have preceded us to the presence of ceived only dry food, the condition of the former at the same time being much superior. d broken, on Lina."

Taunt me not, dear Nora. Frank is Year after year passes away, with ups and ter and the correct manner of treating coming; so let us drop the conversation.

Oh Frank, I am glad to see you; pray what has kept you so long?" these two sentences were uttered in a breath, and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were uttered in a breath and charactery the sentences were utt hopes to others, gray hairs to more—gaps, tions for chasms, bereavements, privations, changes it sweet. giving Frank a kiss on either cheek, thus to all. What a momentous period in the iography of man is one single year!at my exceeding warm welcome after an What issues dose it embosom! How Melt three drachms of spermaceti, four hour's absence, I sat down on an ottoman beautiful, how appropriate that prayer drachms of white wax, with one ounce of that was standing at his feet, buried my which David learned long ago, and which face in his soft hands, and there indulged will never be expunged from the liturgy camphor (previously powdered by moisting the latter of Natural History (1997). in a two hours revery with a great effort, of lowing and believing hearts, "Teach us, tening it with a little spirit of wine); pour restraining my tears.

O Lord, so to number our days that we small quantities into small gallipots, so as may adply our hearts unto wisdom."

BUTTER-MAKING.

We forego the pleasure of variety in our the stern cold winter is spreading its icy week, to make room for the following armantle over the land. The merry birds ticle, interesting to the inquisitive mind, cal knowledge was then very limited. f. I children, but who at length joyfully left this world of sin and sorrow for a brigh-ous Araband Tartar tribes inhabiting mounter and better home above.

Memory recalls one event after another in rapid succession, some pleasing and others serrowful, which have taken place among our own circle of acquaintances during the past twelve months. Some of our most intimate and valued friends have the night of death. Change and decay are written upon all around us, on the face of nature and on the forms of those we most when they discovered the art, we shall nev-

some of our enterprising agriculturists

Butter is the oil of milk, separated by and quarrels with its type. Oc The great motto of our age is Progress! the mechanical action of churning, from sees an article he likesonly the cream. By the former method it has been asserted that more, but by the latter, superior butter is produced. It is mouse. The rose and lily blended live on It is mouse. perform some worthy deeds, and leave behind us a reputation and character, which our posterity may delight to remember which systems. Grass-fed kine yield milk from which beautiful rellers butter is gradient. It is mouse. The rose and lily blended live on her dimpled cheek, and her lips give them expression—oh! gracious ob, so meek. Her hands are white and tender, but her which beautiful rellers butter is cathered. which beautiful yellow butter is gathered; on the contrary, stall-fed cows give milk ed up by handling lager bier which yields a tallowy-looking butter. This latter kind of butter is oftentimes colored gold. The color, therefore, is not always Judge. the test of grass-fed milk. Some kinds of which should never be given to milch cows, months unrequited labor. importance. Milch kine should receive at least one meal per day of steamed or boil-LIFE'S REALITIES.—What tremendous purpose are indian meal, a few pumpkins > cows; at another time we will give direct tions for treating the Butter, to preserve

CAMPHOR BALLS TO PREVENT CHAPS to turn out in the form of cakes.

WEEVIE .- These troublesome pests

Salad for the Solitary.

SOLUTION OF QUES. 2 .- } of the son' age was 21, which added to 15=171, which must lack t of the father's age, of being 5-9 of the same, that is, 17½ lacks (reducing ½ and 5-9 to a common denominator) 9-54 of being 30-54 of the father's age, therefore 17½ is 21-30 that is 7-10 of lines of summer and the abundance of autumn, have all been enjoyed; and now column of "Useful Information" this 5-9 of the father's age. Since 174 is the stern cold winter is spreading its by week, to make room for the following article, interesting to the inquisitive mind, and capable of being useful to the mind and capable of being useful to the mind 5, is 1-9, and 9x5=45. Ans. The father's age was 45 years. MARCUS.

> INDIAN NAMES .- 'Poor,' or 'pore, which is found to make the terminat so many Indian cities and settlements signifies town. Thus Nagpore means the town of Serpents-a definition, by the way, sufficiently appropriate when we reflect on the treacherous character of the Sepoys by whom it was so recently garrison and patam also signify town; Hyderbad being Hyder's town, and Seringaptam— from Sermga, a name of the god Vishnoo— being the town of Seringa. Allahabad from 'Allah God and 'abad,' abode means the abode of God that city being the capital of Agara, the chief school of the Brahhmins and much resorted to by pilgrims. Punjab is applied to a part of a country

One begins to turn fogy about 40; and unless circumstances are very favorable to sympathy for young creation, the subject becomes coated with crusty selfishness, im-penetrable as the three-ply talma of a rhinoceros, and finally, he dies in a fogy-fit, from an osification of the milk of human kindness, with a bland smile of complacent vacancy.

Uneducated Genius.—The greatest geometrician is a creature that has never studied Euclid—the honey-bee: the greatest architect is the unscholastic beaver; the sweetest musician is the unlearned the sweetest musician is the unlearned the sweetest musician is the unlearned the function of the following that the sweetest musician is the unlearned the sweetest musician i

we must refrain from doing that which we gish-too old fogyishor too something else-yet goes regularly to his neighbor and reads by a good fire—finds fault with its contents, disputes with its positions, saves half a dime

A PRETTY WIDOW .- The Springfield lovers sadly fear that she'll get them stain-

A fellow who stole a saw, on his trial PREVENTION OF FIRES.—The follow- ed to deceive the buyer, by annatto, the told the Judge he only took it in a joke. "How far did you carry it?" asked the

"Two miles," answered the prisoner. "Ah, that's carrying the joke too far,' remarked the Judge, and prisoner got three

The most curious things in the world s a woman that is not curios.

HOPE.-A sentiment exhibited in a dog's tail, when waiting for a bone. SAMS AND HIMS .- A maiden lady, sus pecting that her female servant was re-

ing with her down stairs. "Oh, no ma'am," replied the girl, "it was only my singing a psalm. "You may amuse yourself, Betty," re-plied the maiden, "with psalms; but let us have no hims, Betty. I have a great objection to hims." "What animal has the most brains?" Give it up. "The hog. He has a hogs-head full of em."

Francis Pigg, of Indiana, has run away rom Mrs. Pigg and four little Piggs.

child wanted to describe a snake to his, aunt, said it was a thing all tail crear up to the head."

CHIHE NORTH-CAROLINA

JOURNAL OF EDUCATION,
Devoted to the general interests of Education, in all its grades, is published in neat pamphlet form, on the 1st of every month at the following rates :

BOARD OF EDITORS—C. H. WISEY, Sup. of Common Schools of N. C.; F. M. Hubbard, Chapel Hill; Charles Prillips, Chapel Hill: E. F. Rockwell, Davidson College; B. CEANEN, Normal College; W. H. OWEN, Forestville; JAMES H. FOOTE, Taylorsville; R. STERLING, Greensboro': Tayloraville: R. Sterling, Greensbord: Will. K. Blake, Fayetteville; D. S. Richardson, Wilson; Santel H. Wiley, Washington; N. McKat, Summerville: G. W. Brooks, Raleigh; R. H. Brown, Ashebord: J. A. Waddell, Raleigh; J. D. Campbell, Resident Editor.

All communications should be addressed to the Resident Editor, Greensbo-Y, N. C.
Persons sending $3 will receive a copy of the Journal and a copy of the Ti

Opinions of the Press. We make the following extracts from the notices, of the first No. of the N. C. Journal of Education, in our exchanges: "The Journal will prove of service to the UNEDUCATED GENIUS.—The greatest cometrician is a creature that has never that has never the content of the progress of Education in North Carolina to subscribe. —Wilmington Herald.

"The cause of Education will form the burthe sweed either were constructed with ability—and from their diversified position over an extensive field they can be a first position from the lepot, where the first position over an extensive field they can be a first position over an extensive field they can be a first position over an extensive field they can be a first position from the lepot, where the first position from the lepot, where the first position from the lepot, where the

him on the shoulder, said: "You musn't mind these boys, my friend, they'ar always making fun of some fool or other."

Sophistry is like a window curtain—it pleases as an ornament, but it's use is to keep out the light.

There are many men who delight in playing the fool, but who get angry the moment they are told so.

In order to live justly, and be respected to a most refrain from doing that which we was to the should be the most refrain from doing that which we was a most refrain from doing that which we was a most refrain from doing that which we was a most refrain from doing that which we was a limit of the said said that is asked, and if satisfaction is not given as above, the money will be refunded both in cutting and making.

March 12, 1857.

we must refrain from doing that which we blame in others.

Mew Spaper Patronage.—Newspaper "patronage," says a contemporary, is a curious thing in the estimation of some poople. A man lives near you—never took your paper, it is too small—don't like the editor—don't like the polities—too whisgish—too old fogyish—or too something.

March 12, 1851.

March 12, 1851.

March 12, 1851.

See Mrick building, second story, and expects to he able to accommodate all who may want Bonnets Blienched and Dressed. She will also make Ladie's Dresses, or Gentlemen's Coats, Pants, Vests. All work will be done in good style and on moderate terms.

Room No. 3, second story, J. & F. Garrett's New Brick Building.

Oct 27th. (44.)

Oct 27th. PRESH ARRIVALS. Per Schr. L. P. Smith, from New York, 50 Boxes prime Cheese, 10 Kegs Goshen Butter,

10 Bbls City Mess Pork,
5 " Leaf Lard. Good weights and sures given. Low for cash. easures given. Low for cash.
Nov. 14, GEO. H. KELLEY & BRO.

Cabinet Furniture AND COTTAGE BEDSTEADS,

JOS. SEARS PHESE BEDSTEADS, with other articles of Cabinet Furniture, kept contity on hand and for sale cheap by the Manturer. Apply at his shop on Greene Street, weem West Market and Sycamore. reensboro, N. C. 22:7m Greensboro, N. C.

OLD AND SILVER WATCHES, Vest and Fob Chains, Breastpins, Finger, Ear-rings, Revolvers, Pistols, Porte Monnaies and Spectacles for sale by S. ARCHER.

SUPERIOR ARTICLE OF Pure white Lead, Dry and in oil, to gether
th Putty in cans and Glass assorted sizes for e by R. N. CALDWELL.

CARRIAGE FOR SALE.
GOOD second-hand Carriage for July 11, 1856. Apply soon to R. G. LINDSAY.

DEULAH MALE INSTITUTE, D Madison, K. C. The Second Session of this Institution will begin on Wednesday, January 6th, and close on the first Thursday in June.— Students will be prepared for any class in Col-lege, or for the practical duties of life. The galing her beau upon the cold mutton of discipline will be firm, and such as to secure the larder, called Betty, and inquired diligence in study, and commendable deport-

> PAYABLE HALF IN ADVANCE. PATABLE HALF IN ADVANCE.
> Elementary English, $10
> Higher English, 15
> Ancient Languages and Mathematics, 20
> Modern Languages, Each, 10
> For additional particulars address

L. H. SHUCK, Principal.

FALL AND WINTER GOODS.— R. N. Caldwell has just received his neat I well selected assortment of Fall and Winter oods, consisting in Dry Goods, Hardware rockery, Groceries, Druggs, Paints and Die Stuffs, Castings, Cedar and willow wares, all rom Mrs. Pigg and four little Piggs. the Post says he is a hog.

Students of Natural History attend: A hild wanted to describe a snake to his not, said it was a thing all tail erear up on the said it was a thing all tail erear up on the said it was a thing all tail erear up on the said it was a thing all tail erear up on the said it was a thing all tail erear up on the said it was a thing all tail erear up on the said it was a thing all tail erear up on the said it was a thing all tail erear up on the said window wares, and window wares, and of which he offers on the most reasonable terms and earnestly solicits his friends, and the trading community to an examination of his stock.

Terms exclusively cash or its equivolent, and in deviation in Prices.

R. N. CALDWELL.

Perfume. The perfume hearing the above Perfume. The perfume bearing the above is undoubtedly one of the most gratify-Wistar's Wild Cherry Balsom, a sciening to the olfactory perve ever yet the science of the science of forms—with a MARBLE YARD.

NORTH STREET OPPOSITE HOPKINS HOTEL,
Greensboro. N. C.

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Greensboro and surrounding country, that he has opened a Marble Shop a few doors North of the Court House, where he is prepared to furnish all kinds of MONUMENTS, TOMBS and GRAVE STONES, MONUMENTS, TOMBS and GRAVE STONES, as cheap as they can be had in any part of the country. He flatters himself that for work-manship he will give satisfaction to the most fastidious. He invites all to give him a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Peb. 2, 1857.

HEINRICH.

(57::1y.)

THE REVISED CODE.

COPIES received and for sale.

E. W OGBURN. TESPERIAN HARP, THE LAR GEST and one of the best NOTE BOOKS in use, by Rev. Wm. Hauser, M.D., for sale at the Book Store by E. W. OGBURN & CO.

HAWKS' HISTORY OF NORTH CAROLINA for sale at the Book Store by E. W. OGBURN & CO.

HARMERS HALL, Raleigh, N. C.

HARVEST. July, 1856. Grain and Grass Reapers.
Sinclair's, Montgomery, Rockaway Wheat

Heavy and light Horse Powers & Thrashers. Revolving Horse Rakes. Sinclair's and Grant's Grain Cradles. Grain and Grass Blades, all sizes and best Scythe Stones and Rakes, &c., &c.

Sinclair's French Burr Stone Grist Mill.
Ditto Iron Mill & Corn & Cob Crushers mbined warranted to grind table meal.
Scott's Little Giant, all sizes,
Sinclair's Little Champion, & Corn & Cob
Leavelt's improved Young Crushers.

America.

McGregory's Agricultural Boilers, all sizes.

Sinclair's Horse and Hand Iron Propeller

very fine vest and Fob Chaius.

Also a large assortment of Gold and Silver Watches, finer than ever offered for sale here, which will be sold very low for cash.

OTTO HUBER, (successor to A. P. Eckle.)

Dec. 3, 1857.

21% Minute Churns. A NOTHER Lot of these Celebrated Hydro Thermal Churns just at hand at danufacturer's prices, only adding freight. JAMES M. TOWLES, Raleigh, N. C. WHEAT.—THE SUBSCRIBER will pay CASH for good WHEAT delivered at the depot at this place. Bring on your samples.

E. W. OGBURN, Agent for Simmons & Clark, Greensboro, N. C.
Sept., 1857.

mbrellas, &c., &c., &c. Rock Island Jeans and Cassimeres, Kerseys Bolting Cloths, Burr Mill Stones, Grind R. G. LINDSAY.
Oct. 17, 1857. (94:rtf)

ARGAINS-THE BEST AND CHEAPEST A R G AIN S-IHE BEST AND CHEAPEST (Goods in Markett, at S. ARCHER'S STORE.—The Subscriber is now receiving his Fall stock of ready made Clothing, Overcoats, Shawls, Comforts, Shirts, Drawers, Cravats, Suspenders, Pocket Handkorchiefs, Socks, Collars, Hats, Boots, Shoes, Trunks, Traveling bags, Umbrellus, and a great many other things to Umbrellas and a great many other things to numerous to mention, and generally kept in a gentleman's furnishing store, to which he in-vites the attention of his friends, customers and vites the attention of his friends, customers and the public. He flatters himself that he can and promises that he will offer them lower than any other house in this section of the country. These goods were bought low for cash, and will be sold low again for cash. Persons in want of such goods just call, examine and let the sub-scriber know that you have got the cash to pay for what you buy, and you will buy goods for what you buy, and you will buy go cheaper than you ever did before.

S. ARCHER East Market st., Greensboro, Oct. 7th.

ITCHELL'S FALLS."—This ELEGANT LITHOGRAPH, copied from an Ambrotype taken from Nature, giving a perfect view of the Falls and surrounding scenery, is now ready for delivery. It is a picture ten by fourteen inches—finished in "tints," and colored to nature in the finest style of the first men in the mail, and the adjoining States.

Address, WM. E. EDWARDS, Greensboro, N. C.

And calls will be made or Medicine sent be mail, at your option.

He is also in possession of a plain and sim. and colored to nature in the finest style of the Art, accompanied by a "Key" and "Memorial," on a separate sheet, giving the principal incidents relating to the Fulls, and a brief outline of Dr. Mitchell's Birth, Life and Death. It is published by James M. Edney, of New York, in "Tints," or "Colored," at the following prices:

rices:
a "Tints," without frame and glass,
colored to nature " " " 3 00 at In "Tirts," Pictures and Key framed in gilt and Glass,

In git and triass,
Colored to nature

A limited number having been published, all persons desiring a copy would do well to order immadistely, as the first impressions are the best, and the supply may fall short of the demand.

JAMES M. EDNEY. JAMES M. EDNEY,

HOB WORK

abing just added to our hitherto large and well-selected Job Office, a magnificent assortment of Plain & Fancy Job We are confident that we can execute we are confident that we can execute IN THE BEST STYLE FOR THE LEAST

MONEY OF ANY OFFICE IN THE

BLANKS

OXFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.—
The Fourteenth Session will commence on the first Monday in January, 1858. The teachers emplyped are of the first order of ability. The course of instruction is unusually thorough and extensive.

Tuitien in Elementary Branches,
College Classes,
Music, " Painting.
" Embroidery.
Board and Washing per mouth.
No extra charges will be made.
For particulars apply to J. H. MILLS, (96:3m) Oxford, N. C.

W GILMORE SIMMS WORKS V Complete, New and Revised Editions, with Illustrations. Revolutionary Tales—The Partisan; Mellichampe; Katharine Walton: The Seont; Wooderst. The Fornyers Entaw; Border Romances—Guy Rivers; Richard Hardis; Border Beauchampes; Challemont: Beauchampes; Confession: gles; Charlemont; Beauchampe; Confession The Yemassee; Southword, Ho! Poems-In two volumes. At the Book Store by April 16. E. W. OGBURN & CO.

E. W. OGBURN & CO. J. W. HOWLETT & SOR, DENTISTS,

New Books just received at the Book Store.
Lens Rivers, Mrs. M. J. Holmes.
The Heiress of Greenhurst, Mrs. Stephenson, Adam Graeme of Mossgray, by the Author of Zaidee.
Indigepore Races of the Earth.
Inquire Within, or 3700 facts for the people,
For sale by E. W. OGBURN & Co.

SOMETHING NEW! FAMILY PROVISION STORE!

MRS. L. BENCINI has just received and opened a large supply of all kinds rerd at the depot at this place. Bring on your samples.

E. W. OGBURN, Agent for Simmons & Clark, Greensboro, N. C.

Sept., 1857.

BOLTING CLOTHS and BURR MILL STONES.—The genuine Anker Brand Cloths of all Nos. from I to 11, inclusive, kept in full supply on hand. French Burm Mill Stones of any size, to order, and warranted, delivered at Wilmington, Fayetteville, any Station on the N. C. Railrond.

R. G. LINDSAY, April, 1857. N. E. corner of Elm & Market

TALL AND WINTER GOODS.—

R. G. LINDSAY, (Northeast corner of Elm and Market streets,) would invite the attention of his customers and the community generally to his well selected and carefully purchased stock of FALL AND WINTER GOODS, consisting of almost every variety of articles suitable for the scason.

Cloths, Cassimeres, Tweeds and Jeans, N. C. Kersvey, twilled and plain Northeru Linsey, &c., Edige Country produce taken in exchange at Market price.

Sopt. 22

Howard ASS OCIATION, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidennic dissenses.

To all persons afflicted with Sexual Disease, when any special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidennic dissenses.

To all persons afflicted with Sexual Disease, when any special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidennic dissenses.

To all persons afflicted with Sexual Disease, when any special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidennic dissenses.

To all persons afflicted with Sexual Disease, when a special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidennic dissenses.

To all persons afflicted with Sexual Disease, when a special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidennic dissenses.

To all persons afflicted with Virulent and Epidennic dissenses.

To all persons afflicted with Virulent and Epidennic dissenses.

To all persons

Figured and Plain de Laines, all Wool Plauts, &c., &c., Cloaks, Shawls and Scarfs, Ginghams and Prints, Fine Bed Blankets, Negro ditto.

A full supply of Hardware, Cutlery, Nails, Andirons, Spades, Shovels and Forks.

Coffees, Sugars, Tens, green and black, Carpetings, Rugs and Door Mats, Hats, Caps and Finheedlas, &c., &c., &c.

Imbrellas, &c., &c., &c.

cause.
Just published, by the Association, a Report on Spermatorrhora, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Ouanism, Masturbation or Self Abuse, and other diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a sealed envelope.) free of charge, on the receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage.
Address, Dr. GEO. R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South

ing Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Director EZRA D. HEARTWELL, President. GEO. FAIRCHILD, Secretary. (59:1y)

A DAMANTINE AND TALLOW Candles by the lb or Box for sale at the ash store of R. N. CALDWELL.

cash store of R. N. CALDWELL.

WHY DO YE SUFFER WITH CANCERS, ASTIMA, SCROFULA, or any SKIN DISEASE, when it is in your power to be speedily and effectually eured?
Having treated many very bad cases—some which were given up as hopeless, by those not knowing my remedies—I have no hesitancy in saying I can curre any one of the above diseases in a very short time. Seeing is believing, and if any one is credulous, I can produce a number of certificates from some of the first men in this and the adjoining States.

And calls will be made or Medicine sent by

He is also in possession of a plain and sim-TERING and STAMMERING can be cured in a very short time.

The afflicted would do well to write of New York, him, and describe their case. CUSPENDED NOTES ON NORTH CAROLINA Banks taken at par for good 8. ARCHER'S.

> JUST to hand a large and well selected stock of Medicines, Oils, Paints, Dye Stuff, Brushes, Perfumery, Pomades, Extracts, Soaps, Also, DRUGS! DRUGS!! DRUGS!!!

maind, JAMES M. EDNEY, 56 John st., N. Y. 58 JARS of the choicest Brands; in fact, every article usually found in a Drug Store. Call on East Market. Orders promptly filled, Perscription carefully put up at all hours by